

John 11:25-26:

Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life. The one who believes in me will live, even though they die; and whoever lives by believing in me will never die. Do you believe this?"

Earline, my love will be even Greater when we meet again on the other side for the great eternal matrimony.

- Curtis Washington Sr.

Grandmother –

You are so graceful
So Kind and so patient
Thank you for always caring
Sharing your wisdom,
And loving with all of your heart.

We miss you and we know you are watching over all of us.

From,

Aaron, Ashland, Shanae, Ma'Kayla and Maleah

Mother, it is a word that does not need a prefix, suffix, or even an adjective. Most people think that the meaning can be found in a dictionary. But, the meaning of mother was created by the Creator Himself, God Almighty. So even before the dictionary was created, this is proven at the beginning of time when God created the 10 Commandments and one of them was to Honor Thy Mother and Father. And that's what I plan on doing for the rest of my time, is Honoring my wonderful Mother. I love you mommy.

Hole in my Heart, By: Joan Boyle

When God choose you to be my Mom
I was honored and blessed
Mom, you loved unconditionally
You were never too busy to console me,
Heal my wounds,
Teach me right from wrong
Even in your last days
You told me not to be afraid
You wiped my tears
You said don't cry
You held my hand
And spoke love

If only I could hug you again
Kiss you, say I love you
One more time

Mom, I give you a piece of my heart
Hold it
Hug it
Kiss it
Keep it close
Cherish it
Until we meet again
And my heart will then be whole

Mom, you were so strong
I know you didn't want to leave
You were so tired and weak
Rest, my love
You are in God's house

Obituary

On December 6, 1947, The Almighty God called home from labor to reward Earline (Cox) Washington. She departed this life peacefully on August 24, 2022.

She was the daughter of the late Clifton Lee Cox and Dorothy Mae Ford, born December 6, 1947. She always honored her Stepparents Edward Ford Sr. and Lucille Edges. She was the oldest of seventeen siblings from both of her parents who she loved dearly. Earline attended Saint Matthews Episcopal Church as a young child, under the leadership of Father Charles Washington Fox where she sang on the choir, was christened, received confirmation and married. On June 6, 1964 she married the love of her life Curtis Washington Sr. From this union they had two children, Curtis Jr. and Kimberly and two grandchildren Aaron and Ashland. She always said that having children and grandchildren was God's way of rewarding you for a job well-done. They were her world, especially her grandchildren.

Later in life she joined New Antioch Baptist Church, under the leadership of Bishop Orlando A. Wilson and Huber Memorial Church, under the leadership of Pastor P.M. Smith where she served whenever and where she was asked.

She attended Baltimore City Public Schools and graduated from Paul Lawrence Dunbar High School. She completed other studies from Essex Community College as an American Board-Certified Optician, Towson State University as Licensed Florist, and Baltimore City Community College in Allied Human Service, was a Health and Life Insurance Agent for the State of Maryland and was also a Notary for the state of Maryland. Earline loved to learn all she could about everything so that she could help as many people as possible in different ways. She worked at Maryland General Hospital for 1 year as nursing assistant, Greater Baltimore Medical Center's CFHC for 30 years (as Optician and Enrollment Coordinator) where she was awarded Employee of the year in 1995. She worked for Elder Health for 5 years as Admission Director, Baltimore Medical System, Inc. for 15 years as Outreach and Access Program Manager and worked 2 years part time as Tobacco Health Educator after retirement. She started her family business "Washington Florist" in 1985 and worked from home after closing the shop on Duncan Street.

She loved serving the underserved residents of East Baltimore and tried to help others any way she could. She loved to travel, to collect angels, and design flowers.

She truly loved her family and friends and simply adored her nieces and nephews especially when they were small. They were her pride and joy. She will be missed by all.

She leaves to mourn: Her husband of 58 years, Curtis Washington Sr., One Son Curtis Washington Jr., One Daughter Kimberly Washington, Two grandchildren Aaron Washington and Ashland Washington. Three God Children Shanae, Ma'Kayla and Maleah. Five sisters: Patricia Harris, Vivian Ford, Pier-Angela Ford, Stephanie Whitehurst, Terita Richardson. Five brothers: Edward Ford Jr., Mark Ford, Ronald Cox, Norman Cox, and Donnie Brown. Eight sisters-in-law Jane Lloyd, Delores Sanders (Steve), Barbara Bryant (Jerome), Dorothy Green (John), Evon Green, Veronica Lowery (Tee) and Wanda Cox and the late Verletta Thomas (Ronald). Five brothers that preceded her in death: Michael Cooper, Aaron Ford, and Reginal Ford Clifton J. Cox, Thurman Cox. One sister that preceded her in death: Tammy M. Ford. Five aunts: Frances McQueen, Roberta Byrd of Baltimore, and Lorraine Byrd (Camden, South Carolina), the late Rosalie and Mary Byrd. Four uncles: Joseph S. Ford, George Byrd Jr., the late Elijah McQueen, the late Ernest Byrd, the late Willie Byrd of Baltimore and late Authur Byrd of Camden South Carolina. Two Uncles from McClellanville, South Carolina, Isiah Collenton and the late William Green. Two Aunts from McClellanville, South Carolina, Christine Collenton and the late Marie Green. A host of nieces, nephews and other family relatives and friends.
