

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.*

*I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of the day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.*

*Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My Life's been full, I savoured much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,*

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,*

God wanted me now, He set me free.

Celebrating the Life of

Pennetter Pryor Godbee

OCTOBER 1, 1948 - NOVEMBER 25, 2025

LIFE'S JORNEY

Penetter Marie Pryor-Godbee

On October 1, 1948, in the quaint town of Henderson, Texas, the world welcomed Penetter Marie Pryor-Godbee into a loving family, born to Wilbert and Maurine Pryor. A bright and spirited soul, she illuminated the halls of Hill High School before embarking on her journey through life, which led her to the vibrant campus of Prairie View A&M.

In the tapestry of her life, Penetter shared a beautiful chapter with her first husband, Don Randell, from whom she welcomed her beloved son, Bobby Randell. Though their marriage came to an end, the bond with her son remained a cornerstone of her heart. Later, love found her again in Paul Godbee, with whom she built a life filled with shared dreams and tender memories.

Penetter dedicated many years employed with Safeway, where her warm smile and infectious spirit as a cashier made her a cherished presence. Upon her retirement, she embraced new adventures as an entrepreneur, diving into the world of real estate with the same enthusiasm that characterized every endeavor she pursued.

Beyond her professional life, Penetter's passions flourished. She was an avid reader and a gifted quilter, fabricating warmth not only through threads and fabrics but also by threading together cherished memories with her loved ones. Her love for sports was palpable, as she cheered on her favorite teams with boundless energy. Her faith was a guiding light, as she attended Sun Country Community Church, drawing strength from its community.

Penetter reunites now with her beloved parents, Wilbert and Maurine Pryor, and her dear siblings—Wilbert Jr., Urias, Velton, and Annie—as well as her nephew Robert. She leaves behind a legacy brimming with love: her son Bobby; granddaughters Zakiya Randell and Kahleanna Vohra; great-grandsons Eli French, Remi French, and Kai Vohra; and her brothers Melvin, Senora, and Winfred Pryor, alongside a host of devoted relatives and friends.

*In her own heartfelt words to her family,
Penetter reflected on a life profoundly lived:
“I’ve lived the best life ever with the best people in the world, and that’s with each of you. Continue to love and care for each other and cherish all the memories that we’ve shared together. Until We Meet Again.”*
