

Frances Louise Hankins Mason

Psalm 23

*The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
he leadeth me beside the still waters.*

*He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.*

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

Frances Louise (Sealock) Hankins Mason, resident of Shawnee, passed away on Saturday, December 3, 2022. She was 90 years old.

Louise was born on February 20, 1932, in McLoud, OK. She graduated from Prairie Valley High School in Seminole County. On August 13, 1950, she married Doyle Wayne Hankins at Highway Baptist Church in Little, Oklahoma, where they met. Doyle and Louise lived in Perry and Enid before moving to Shawnee in 1995. She was an exceptional homemaker and loved baking chocolate chip cookies for everyone. She worked as a Mary Kay Consultant for many years. A devout Christian, Louise was a member of Immanuel Baptist Church and taught Sunday school class for many years. She enjoyed writing poetry and could write a poem driving down the road.

Louise was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, Doyle Hankins, daughter, Debra Louise Hankins, son, Stanley Edward Hankins, daughter, Nancy Lee Rhodes Hankins, husband, Ray Mason, and sister, Mollie Bell Sealock.

Survivors include her brother, Dan Sealock, and wife, Lana of Prague, sister Janet Kathryn Tate and husband, Lee of Tecumseh, nephews, Todd Tate and wife Terri of Shawnee, Lance Tate and wife Amy of Tulsa, Dane Tate of Enid, Danny J. Sealock and wife, Angie of Earlsboro, and Shane Sealock of Moore, niece, Jana Davis of Prague, as well as a host of extended family.

Although Louise loved flowers, please consider a memorial donation in her honor to the Oklahoma Baptist Homes for Children: 3800 N. May Ave., Okla. City, OK 73112.
