Forever in Our Hearts

We thought of you today,
but that's nothing new.
We thought of you yesterday,
And every day still, too.

We speak your name so often still,
and feel you always near—in quiet
thoughts, in laughter shared,
in memories held dear.

We'll miss your voice, your phone calls, the way you'd simply check in.
The little things meant everything,
and won't come 'round again.

You filled your days with music, with stories, soul, and song. And though you're gone, the love
remains—it's been here all along.
God has you in His keeping now, where pain and troubles part. We have you in the life we live, and carry you in our hearts.

Love Your Children
—Sammie & Kathy

God's Garden

God looked around His garden
And found an empty place.
He then looked down upon the earth
And saw your tired face.
He put His arms around you
And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful
He always takes the best.
He saw the road was getting rough
And the hills were hard to climb,
So He closed your weary eyelids
And whispered "Peace be thine."
It broke our hearts to lose you
But you didn't go alone,
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.

Love You—Delaine & Jessica

Remembering

The beauty of a memory
Is that it's always there.
Like a penny in your pocket,
You can take it anywhere.

And when your heart is heavy,
And your eyes are filled with tears,
You can focus on a memory,
And travel through the years.

Your heart can visit happy times,
When laughter filled the air.
And the presence of your loved one,
Will lessen your despair.

So, as you travel in life,
Take comfort as you go,
In a lifetime of "sweet memories,"
Of one who loved you so!

Your Daughter in Love,
Lorraine

Grandpa

He lived by the strings of his old guitar, where blues ran deep and dreams reached far. A soul who spoke in chords and song, whose music lingered, sweet and strong.

With every note, his spirit soared, in every strum, a life adored. Now silence falls, yet still we hear his melody, forever near.

Rest easy Grandpa—play on above, in endless blues, in endless love.

The Life Journey of Jessie Clyde Thompson

Jessie Clyde Thompson, affectionately known as "Do Right," was born on May 18, 1944, to the late Annie Thompson and Jack Clyde Lockett, Sr. On August 30, 2025, at the age of 83, Jessie peacefully departed this life and entered eternal rest.

A gifted guitarist and electric blues musician, Jessie's talent and artistry captured the very soul of the genre. Though he never read a single note of music, he was blessed with the extraordinary ability to play beautifully by ear. His voice, his music, and his spirit blessed countless lives across the country, leaving behind melodies and memories that will live on forever.

Preceding him in death were his parents, Annie and Jack Lockett; four sisters, and nine brothers; two aunts and two uncles.

He leaves to cherish his memory two loving sisters, Suenelle Brownfield, and Ruby D. White; his ten children: Kathy and Willie Daniels, Sammie and Lorraine Walker (of Los Angeles, California), Jessica Garner, Connie Davis, Red, Jeanette Jones, Delaine and James Denson (Mendenhall, Mississippi). Jessie is also survived by his grandchildren, great grandchildren, and a host of nieces, great nieces, nephews, and great nephews.

Jessie shared 40 years of love and companionship with the late Kathy Annette Garner, a bond that was cherished.

Jessie attended Harper High School. In his younger years, Jessie was a devoted member of True Bible Way. For the past 25 years, he faithfully continued his Christian walk with Mendenhall Bible Church, where he uplifted others with both his faith and his music.

Jessie's favorite scripture was Psalm 23. He dedicated his life to being a blessing to others, spreading joy through his music, his laughter, and his kind heart. Jessie never believed in making enemies—only friends.

He was a wonderful father, father-in-law, grandfather, and friend. His legacy of love, music, and faith will forever remain in the hearts of those who knew him. Jessie was truly a blessing to have in all of our lives, and he will be deeply missed.

Music touches you the most,
It refreshes you with its serenity.
Be it Do, Re, Me or Sa, Re, Ga, Ma,
Music is the soul of life.

Nothing is as divine as music.
It comes from within
And expresses joys and sorrows
Which reside in the heart...

Acknowledgment

The family of Jessie Clyde "Do Right" Thompson would like to express our deepest gratitude for your prayers, love, and support during this time of loss. Your kindness has brought us comfort and strength, and we thank you from the bottom of our hearts.

Psalm 23

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.
