

Her journey just begun

*Don't think of her as gone away
her journey's just begun
life holds so many facets
this earth is only one.*

*Just think of her as resting from the sorrows and the tears
in a place of warmth and comfort
where there are no days or years.*

*Think how she must be wishing
that we could know today
how nothing but our sadness
can really pass away.*

*And think of her as living in the hearts of those she touched for nothing loved is ever lost
and she was loved so much.*

Acknowledgements

The Floyd/Corbin family wishes to thank all of you for your gifts of love, flowers, cards, calls and all you did to bring comfort in this time of bereavement. Most importantly, your prayers gave all of us a boost of hope.

Special thanks to Patricia's brother, Ernest "Ernie" Floyd and niece Ms. Sharon Corbin, who coordinated and brought the family together, who so cordially worked together in harmony to say "farewell for now". Also, we would like to thank Nai Nai's school and teachers; Jean and others. God bless you all.

Life Reflections

Matthew 11:28-30 - Come to me, all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

*P*atricia Lynn Floyd, 58 years old, of Dorchester, Massachusetts passed away unexpectedly on Wednesday October 11, 2023, at her home.

She leaves to mourn her daughter Antinazicia Rosetta Floyd, lovingly called Nai Nai; her brothers, Ernest Floyd of Worcester, David (Barry) Floyd of Boston, Dana (Peter) Floyd and Thomas Floyd; her two aunts, Mrs. Ronald (Frances) Fitts, Sr. of Boston and Mrs. Carrie Hull-Chandley of Maine; her niece Ms. Sharon Corbin of Boston, her cat Playise, and a host of nieces, nephews, great nieces and nephews, cousins, family and friends. Patricia was the youngest of eight children. Pre-deceased by her mother Mrs. Rosetta Corbin Floyd, three brothers: Jesse L. Corbin (former owner and director of Jessie L. Corbin Funeral Home), William Henry Corbin and Timothy L. Corbin.

Patricia was a graduate of Jamaica Plain High School, attended New England University, worked as a security guard and home health aide. She also attended Holy Tabernacle Church of Dorchester along with her daughter prior to her failing health. Patricia enjoyed listening to gospel artist Pastor Shirley Caesar, as well as the Five Blind Boys and Albertina Walker. She was also a great fan of the Boston Celtics. Her favorite words were “Let’s put it this way”. Her Facebook plaque said it all, “Until my last breath, I will praise the Lord”.

She was beloved by all and will be sorely missed.
