Life Reflections

"For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand. I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course." II Timothy 4:6 - 7

Derrick J. Amos, age 44, of Sumter, South Carolina, entered into eternal rest on Wednesday, July 22, 2026.

Born on November 3, 1981, in Sumter, South Carolina, Derrick was the beloved son of the late Nathan Amos and Helen Amos. From an early age, he was known for his humble spirit, gentle nature, and unwavering kindness. He possessed a warm heart, a genuine smile, and a deep love for his family and friends. Derrick's compassionate personality and willingness to help others left a lasting impression on everyone privileged to know him.

Derrick was educated in the public schools of Sumter County, where he developed a passion for athletics. Throughout his middle and high school years, he proudly participated in football, demonstrating discipline, teamwork, and determination both on and off the field. Following graduation, he furthered his education by attending York Technical College in Rock Hill, South Carolina.

Dedicated to serving others, Derrick devoted much of his professional life to caring for and mentoring young people and those in need. He was employed as a Residential Counselor at Mount Holly Elementary School in Rock Hill, South Carolina, where he positively impacted the lives of many students. He also served as a Behavior Modification Technician at Turning Point Group Home, providing guidance and support to youth facing challenges. His commitment to helping others continued through his employment at Ranson Middle School in Charlotte, North Carolina, and later in the Emergency Department at Charlotte Medical Center, where his caring spirit and strong work ethic were evident in every role he held.

Although his earthly journey was cut short, Derrick's legacy of love, compassion, and service will continue to live on in the hearts of those who knew and loved him. His memory will forever be treasured by his family, friends, coworkers, and all whose lives he touched.

He leaves to cherish his precious memories his beloved son, Ace Christian Amos; his devoted mother, Helen Amos; and nine loving siblings: Sharon Rock, Anthony (Ajab) Amos, Tamola (Sam) Hearrell, Demetrius (Demetria) Amos, Aaron (Laquanda) Amos, Marcus (Centrehia) Amos, Coryell Amos, Jemar Branch, and Hunter Dinkins, along with a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins, other relatives, and many dear friends who will forever cherish his life and memory.
