

GRIEVE NOT FOR ME

A limb has fallen from the family tree

I keep hearing a voice that says "Grieve not for me."

Remember the best times, the laughter, the song

The good life I lived while I was strong

Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you.

Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through.

My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest.

Remembering all, how I was truly was blessed.

Continue traditions, no matter how small.

Go on with your life, don't worry about falls.

I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin,

Until the day comes we're together again.

In Appreciation:

The family of the late Mattie Elizabeth Luckey would like to express their appreciation to each and every one of you for your many acts of kindness you have demonstrated during their time of bereavement.

OBITUARY

Mattie Elizabeth Luckey, 84 was born in Neptune NJ to the late Charles Alexander and Olive (Harvey) Alexander on March 26, 1937. Mattie affectionately known as "Liz" gained her wings on January 27, 2022 at home and went to be with her Lord and Savior.

Liz grew up in Brielle and graduated from Manasquan High School in 1955. Liz was the youngest of five children. On October 30, 1960 she married the love of her life James Scott Luckey and together they raised 7 children.

The family resided in South Belmar NJ before moving to Neptune NJ in 1968 and has resided at this location for the last 54 years.

Liz was a domestic worker and caretaker of many before being employed at Marlboro State Hospital retiring in 1998 when they closed. She continued in the health care field working private duty.

She enjoyed many trips to Atlantic City with Agnes Jefferson her best friend. She also enjoyed playing cards with her Brielle family, working in her yard, having family barbecues and making her famous sweet potato pies for her co-workers from Marlboro family and friends. She also loved to make her potato salad.

Liz was predeceased in death by her husband James Scott Luckey, also her father and mother and her siblings Betty Evans, Grover Alexander, Margie Simmons, Charles (Bunky) Alexander and her favorite Aunt Dorothy (Sackie) Harvey.

She leaves to cherish her memories her seven children Derek (Karen) Alexander, Deborah Alexander, Denise (Carl) Richardson, Dedra (Kwaku) Saprang, Charles (Lakeeta) Luckey, Dwayne Luckey, Sonya (Price) Montgomery, her 21 grandchildren, Taniya, Darnell, Tivona, Adrian, Tamara, Tierra, Nekida, Tyrone, Charles Jr., Derek Jr., Michael Jr., Alyssa, Janet, Tyrell, Brandon, Tayana, Dwayne Jr., Tyreek, Keandra, Jamir and Jamel and her 27 great grandchildren, her two brothers in laws, Oliver Stokes and Edward Evans and a host of niece's nephew's cousins and friends.
