

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures,
He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul.

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil; for thou art with me;
Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies;
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life;

And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

Obituary

Anthony Mark Maxberry, better known as "Tony" was born on May 15, 1962. Tony was a proud husband to Renee Riley and a loving father to his two children Anthony Maxberry (affectionately known as "Boo") and Tamika Maxberry. Tony truly enjoyed all sorts of outdoor activities, such as fishing and camping, and was especially happy cooking on the grill. Tony would grill anything. He loved working with his hands and expressing himself through art, painting, and drawing. A dedicated worker, Tony put in long hours at Steel Craft building doors. He was also employed at the Stone Center for many years, where he built headstones and marble countertops. When it was time to unwind, Tony enjoyed watching football and drinking a few beers. He also loved watching old cowboy movies.

He was always quick to offer a helping hand to anyone in need, whether it was cutting their grass, moving furniture, or assisting with car repairs, earning him the well-known title of the neighborhood handyman. Throughout his life, Tony always expressed a deep belief in God, including a personal need and desire for salvation.

Tony was preceded in death by his (wife) Renee Riley; his (son) Tony Maxberry Jr.; his (daughter) Tamika Maxberry; and his (mother) Marilyn L Maxberry-Jones. He is survived by his (father) James Felder (brother) Timothy Maxberry, (brother) Theodore Maxberry, and (sister) Tina Johnson-Golden, along with 5 nephews and 2 nieces and cousins who were like brothers Chick, Kelth and Cle and a host of family and friends who will cherish his memory.
