Dayneia Monyet Hill Brown was born on January 17, 1979 at Baltimore City Hospital to Rosetta and the late Terry Hill (who preceded her in death). She departed this life on Friday August 4, 2023 at the Johns Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore, MD.

She joined First Charity Baptist Church at an early age, accepted the Lord Jesus Christ as her Savior and was baptized May 15, 1985 by the late Rev. Prince A. Kearney. She was a member of the Junior Usher Board, in which she served proudly.

She married Gary Brown Jr. in December 2019.

Dayneia was a very happy person and loved to help people. Especially, the children; she LOVED children! She was very helpful to her Grandparents until the end.

Poems

Roses Grow In Heaven

*If roses grow in Heaven, Lord, Please pick a bunch for me.
Place them in my Mother's arms and tell her they're from me.
Tell her that I love and miss her, And when she turns to smile,
Place a kiss upon her cheek, And hold her for a while.
Because remembering her is easy, I do it everyday,
But there's an ache within my heart that will never go away.
I'll miss you forever and always love you!*

Your Sons, Dayron, Anthony, and Peanut

*Mom, without you, there would be no me.
Your love, your attention, your guidance, have made me who I am.
Without you, I would have been lost, wandering aimlessly without direction or purpose.*

*You showed me the way to serve, to accomplish, to persevere.
Without you, there would have been an empty space I could never fill, no matter how I tried.
Instead, because of you, I have joy, contentment, satisfaction and peace.*

*Thank you, Mom
I have always loved you and I always will.
Love your Son, TJ (Doodie)*

*God blessed the home we shared for years.
Through all of our issues, we kept it real.
Now, my love, you are walking through Heaven;
I'm still here to do what is destined.
I love you, I love our men and together, we are destined to win!
Loving you my Pooh Bear, until we meet again!
Love, Gary*

My Angel

*Too my dear angel in heaven
I just want you to know
That you are always in my thoughts
And how much I love you so*

*I know you are in gods care
That is how it should be
But when I get to heaven
He will give you back to me
Love your Mother, Rose*

*To My Niece, Wow, I would have never thought we would be here today, memorializing your life!
But, God had a plan that nobody knew about. As Job said, the Lord giveth and the Lord taketh away, Blessed be the name of the Lord!
I will miss your smirky smile and your warm welcome "Hey Auntie"
when I come to town.
I thank you for the admiration you showed me, it was very encouraging.
I can remember after I gave birth to Chelae and came home, how you used to sit in my room, waiting to hold her and be my little helper.
Then, years later, You were that for Chelae's kids. As soon as they came into town,
you would grab Nathan to take him for a stroll down the street.
When you came back, you would get Nori and try to settle her down. The kids were a gateway to your heart!
I also remember our talks, when I shared with you some of my struggles that I had in life and encouraged you to do better with yours.
I think you took it to heart, kept trying and were making future plans.
I want to also thank you for being there for Momma and Pop, although we tried to make you leave the house, lol,
You were determined to be there because you said she needs you and she did. It became evident over the coming months, so thank you!
Now, we have to find a way to live without you. It will be hard but with God as our strength, we will make it through!*

*Until we meet again, I love You!
Rest up, Love your Auntie Nessa*
