

Come With Me

God saw you getting tired,

And a cure was not to be;

So he put his arms around you,

And whispered, "Come to me".

You didn't deserve what you went through

So He gave you rest

God's Garden must be beautiful

He only takes the best.

Love your baby sister, Vikki

Obituary

On Thursday, September 19, 2024, Ricky (Ol'Skool/ Slick Rick) gained his heavenly wings at his sister Victoria's house, surrounded by his loved ones at the age of 66. Ricky leaves an empty space in the hearts of his family and friends who were always entertained by his sense of humor.

Ricky Dean Jones was born March 5, 1958, in Cincinnati, Ohio, to the late Dennis and Ada (Ephraim) Jones. He attended Mt. Healthy High School while learning the skill of construction from his father Dennis. Ricky was a jack of all trades; however, he specialized in painting.

He enjoyed watching sports, fishing, and traveling. Ricky never met a stranger and could spark up a conversation with anyone about anything. He found joy in sharing whatever he had with the people he loved.

Ricky loved his sisters, and they loved him! He also loved talking crap and roasting people. Ricky was Ricky!

He was preceded in death by his loving parents, Ada and Dennis Jones; sisters Betty Jones, Jacqueline (Michael) Lyles, and Denise Williams; brother Ernest Lee Gordon; and brother-in-law and best friend Michael (Jacqueline) Lyles.

Although Ricky's shell is gone, he will never be forgotten. He leaves to cherish his memory: three children, Martique and Larry (Sharonda) Franklin and Yolanda Battles; four stepchildren that he treated like his own, Nicole Horton, Keisha, Tyrone and Ebony McCurdy; 26 grandchildren; 7 great-grandchildren; five sisters, Victoria Jones, Susan (George) Satterwhite, Annie (Bruce) Robinson, Helen Major and Sandra Jones; one living aunt, Lillian (Morris) Johnson and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and special friends.
