

In Memory of Our Special Auntie

You were very special, And that's why it's hard
 To put all of our feelings, On this little card
 You were called, you had to go, And it makes us feel sad today,
 Because it feels so very wrong, You could no longer stay
 As you're now with the Angels, And with the Lord above
 We'd like to send a hug to you, And also lots of love
 So sleep well dear Auntie, And we'll try not to feel distressed
 As you were a shining light, And you certainly were the best

Love From Nieces / Nephew Gia, George III, Skye

My Dear Son

You are my sunshine.
Since the day you were born, my heart was full of love.
Every moment with you was special.

When you smiled, my world became brighter.
Your laughter, Was the sweetest sound I know.
It filled our home with joy.
Life may not always be easy.

There will be times you find yourself lost or unaware
But remember this: you are never alone
I am here for you always

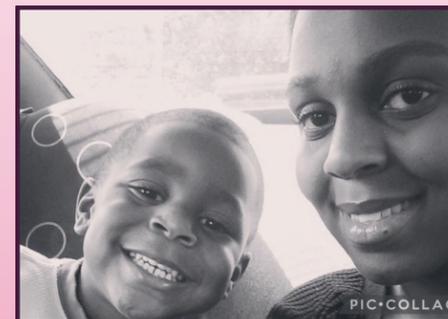

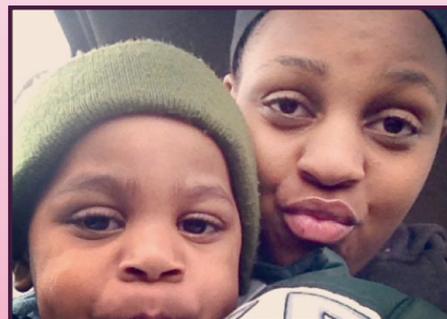

No matter how far you go, you will always have my love It is endless and unbreakable.

Follow your heart, my son Dream big and work hard
Believe in yourself and know that you can do amazing things

You are my pride and my joy
Thank you for making my life full of love
I treasured every moment we shared together

Remember our song. You & I together.
Come on baby won't you hold on to me, hold on to me?

Love you always, Mom

Obituary

Ashley-Yvonne Ellen Adams, cherished daughter of George T. (Cynthia) Adams and Serena Johnson-Adams, passed away on May 5, 2025, in Arlington, Texas, at the age of 32. Born March 21, 1993, in Saginaw, Michigan.

Ashley was raised in a loving environment, deeply rooted in faith as a member of Mt. Moriah Missionary Baptist Church under the guidance of her grandfather, Pastor Johnnie F. Edwards Sr. She also attended Victorious Believers Minister COGIC, where she was influenced by the late Bishop Marvin C. Pryor.

Ashley received her education in the Saginaw Public Schools, commencing at Houghton Elementary and proudly graduating with the class of 2011 from Saginaw High School. Following her graduation, she served in the United States Army Reserve. Over the past decade, Ashley has made notable contributions to her professional field through her roles at Charter Communications LLC, as well as previous positions at Morley Company, Meijer, and McDonald's, leaving a positive impact on her colleagues and peers.

Ashley was a dedicated advocate for charitable causes and contributed to her community, regularly donating blood and signing up as an organ donor. Since 2012, she has supported the Cancer Society, demonstrating her commitment to making a difference in the lives of others, even becoming a recipient of its services.

She leaves behind a loving legacy, her son, Jayden C. Bracey; parents, George T. (Cynthia) Adams Sr., Serena A. Johnson-Adams; siblings, George T. (Sharnice) Adams Jr., Minister Sir Andre' Johnson; grandparents, George W. and Marilyn Adams, Pastor Johnnie Edwards, Sr., the late Sylvia Edwards and Earl M. Johnson; uncles, Johnny (DeRhonda) Edwards Jr., Kalamazoo, MI, Corey (Courtney) Adams Sr., Fayetteville, GA; aunts, Desiree Edwards, Kalamazoo, MI, September Garza, Katrina (Deacon James) Rhoden; nephew, George T. Adams III; nieces, Gia Nicole and Skye Yvonne Adams; In addition, Ashley has a close-knit group of cousins, including DaJuan, Jonathan, and Brooke Edwards, Kalamazoo, MI; Corey Adams Jr., Atlanta, GA, Jordan Simpson, Aniya Gray-Rhoden, Aaliyah, Lay'Ana, and Sy'Air Riley.

Her extended family spans the United States and includes the Adams, Johnson, Lewis, Edwards, Liddell, Triplette, and Holmes families. Ashley's spiritual family includes the Reeves, Baston, Marshall, Woodhouse, and McCall families. She valued her connections with her Sister Circle, which consists of Sharnice Ragland, Jaz'mine Marshall, Latisha Anderson, Erica Thomas, D'Vaughna Hughes, and MiKayla West. Additionally, she has many friends and associates who will never forget her kindness and warmth.

The family wishes to express their deepest gratitude to the exceptional medical teams and individuals who have provided outstanding care and support. We are indebted to Dr. Elizabeth C. Pollard, the Texas Oncology team, Surgeon Dr. Frederick D. Todd II, the Palliative Team, and the entire Medical City Arlington Hospital. We also appreciate the tireless efforts of Dr. Bernard Novelos, the CMU Healthcare team, Dr. Sussan Bays, Dr. Ronald Bays, Surgeon Dr. George Malliaras, and the compassionate Heart to Heart Hospice team. Abundant Healthcare, particularly FNP Carlisa Brown, has been a beacon of hope. We are grateful for the generosity of Cancer Care Service, Project 4031, Catholic Charities, and the Heart of Hope Charitable Fund. The National Cancer Society and the Family Reach Foundation have been invaluable resources.

We extend our heartfelt thanks to Tyretha Baston, Phyllis Meeks, Maple Brown, Marguerite Ector, Betty Daniels, Charlotte Darling and family, James (Nina) Bracey Jr., Karen (Grandma Nita) McClain, and Alicia (Darren) Buckley. We express our deepest appreciation to The Mt. Moriah Baptist Church, Minister Al Curley, Pastor & First Lady Dwight McKissic, Major Funeral Home team, Arlington, Texas, Pastor Benjamin Smith, Ivan E. Phillips, and the staff at Paradise Funeral Chapel.

She was preceded in death by her aunt, Samantha Ann Johnson; uncle, Baby Jarvis Juan Edwards; grandparents, Sylvia Ann Edwards and Earl Milton Johnson.
