John 14: 1-4

Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also. And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know.

Words can't express the way we feel about Pauline. Thanks for the tributes, calls, messages and the support. It just shows us how much Pauline was loved. Every act of kindness, love and thoughtfulness is greatly appreciated. May God continue to bless and keep you. – the Sims/Turner Family

To my Love, Pauline

I still remember the first time I saw you. I knew right then and there you were the one for me. Love at first sight! Not knowing you felt the same way but you stopped me and made us happen. 34 years later, 10 children 15 grandchildren, I thank you for our beautiful family and wonderful life together. Pauline Sims, I love you so much. You will always be in my heart forever. Until we meet again my love/wife.

LOVE, SYLVESTER TURNER

"Forever in My Heart"

The Obituary

Pauline Sims was born August 25, 1962 to James and Flourine Sims. She was baptized at an early age at Southern Baptist Church in Avondale on Reading Road. She grew up on the West End Lincoln Courts. She attended Robert. A Taft High School. Pauline loved to dress up in her dresses and high heels. She was a beautiful and very popular girl.

Pauline was known as "Polly" to many close friends and family. Her favorite name was "Mama". Polly gave birth to 10 children that she loved dearly, Toshawn Sims, Robert Sims, Sylvester Sims, Amika Turner, Jamico Turner, Nairah Turner, Johnathan Turner, Keith Sims, Heaven Turner, and Samone Turner. She shared a special relationship with each and every one of them. She loved them all equally. Most of all she shared a very special relationship with the love of her life, her husband, Sylvester Turner. They met in 1986 in Downtown Cincinnati on Findlay Street. Pauline and Sylvester would spend the next 34 years together. They created a beautiful, loving family with 10 children, and 15 grandchildren, Jamico, Karma, Te'irah, Te'ana, E'miya, Jamiya, Ava, Yahari, Yamina, Jah'faye, Jamere, Jacorey, Zahra, Te'lah, and Jenesis who she loved very much. They her knew as "Maw Maw". In addition to her husband Sylvester, her 10 children and 15 grand children she also leaves to cherish her memory her sister Jackie Sims, brother James Sims, along with a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins, sister in laws, brother in laws, cousins, family and friends.

Pauline was very outspoken, witty, and not afraid to speak her mind. She was herself at all times. She was a girly girl. She would get dressed up, and put on her dress, heels and lipstick. She felt like the prettiest, chocolate woman in the world. She loved being around her family. She was a home body and loved being home watching her shows/stories: The young and the Restless, Guiding Light, The Bold and the Beautiful, As the World Turns, Judge Mathis, and Maury. She loved watching them with her kids. She loved talking, but had a good listening ear and always gave great advice. Before Pauline died she was a member of Mosaic Vineyard Church.

She attended church every Sunday and Wednesday. She loved to go to Wednesday church as we called it. She looked forward to attend every week. She made sure her children were there with her. Pauline knew the importance of having a relationship with Christ. She decided to give her life over to Christ again, and got baptized for the second time by Pastor Hal and Deb. They loved her and she loved them. Pauline and Pastor/First Lady Mrs. Deb shared a special bond with each other. Pauline was loved by many and will be missed.

She was preceded in death by her father, James Sims Sr.; her mother, Flourine Sims; her sister, Mary Lee Dates; her daughter, Samira Le'cream Turner; and her son, Robert Deshawn Sims.

Mama is Her Name

A Mother's love is so deep. Deeper than one can explain.

One of life's best gifts Mama is her name.

She will teach you right from wrong She will comfort you like your favorite song

And when you're feeling weak, Mama will remind you to stay strong.

You won't always listen when she tells you that you're wrong,

But soon you'll realize she was right all along

You won't always see eye to eye, but one thing you can't deny is that

The love between a mom and child is something that doesn't die

No ends at all, no sad goodbyes, no fear, no tears, no love that dies this love can't be tamed.

One of God's best creations Mama is Her Name

~Amika

To My Sister

Pauline Sims I don't know life without you. We were two peas in a pod. We were like twins, if you saw one of us you saw the other. Our parents dressed us alike on special occasions. We slept together and you were a fighter. You fought all the time, while telling me to run home while you took care of the situation. We were known for fighting. You took care of me. We were never apart. How am I going to make it through the rest of these days without you? I don't know, but I know I will see you again. I know you are healed now. No more pain, or suffering. You will never be alone again. See you at the Crossroads My Sister. Loving and missing you!

~Your little sister, Jacqueline Sims

Truly My Heart

My sister meant so much to me. She was like my best friend, more like a second mom. Pauline took such good care of me. Bought me things and gave me so much advice on so many things. She was just always there when I needed her. I'm going to miss you so much.

She was truly my heart.

~James
