

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures,
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul.
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil; for thou art with me;
Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies;
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life;
And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

Love Mom

I still can't forget the sound of your final breath
At your bedside just before you passed away you said something that I remember Your soft hands were still warm to the touch lightly
entwined in mine
I made a pledge to stop crying,
but the grief of losing you Mom is still incredibly horrifying -
I'm Missing You

Obituary

Patricia Almetta Foster was born on October 13, 1956, in Chattanooga, Tennessee, to Mattie Louise Foster and John Alfred Foster II at Erlanger Hospital. She was the third child born to them. The family relocated to Cincinnati, Ohio, where Patricia continued her education in the Cincinnati Public School system, attending Hoffman Elementary, Sawyer Junior High, and Withrow High School. She was also a member of United Community Christian Church.

She worked in the nursing field in her early years and also spent many years in manufacturing. Patricia enjoyed gymnastics, softball, cosmetology, cooking, and offering a loving hand, often opening her home to anyone in need. Her family meant everything to her. She was full of life, always a good time, but also no-nonsense.

Those who preceded her in death include her mother, Mattie Louise Foster; father, John Alfred Foster II; grandparents, Riley and Alice Taylor; aunt, Jennie Mae Dunnigan; uncle, Robert Taylor; sister, Gwendolyn J. Montgomery; brother, John Alfred Foster III; nieces, Yvette P. Foster and Lynetta L. Foster; nephew, Charles Montgomery; and the fathers of her children, Bruce McDonald and Theodore Bates.

Foster, Yevola Green, and Rhonda J. Foster; brother, Donnie Hare; grandchildren, David Foster, Anthony Foster, Nydazia Foster, and Mariea Foster; and a host of great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, relatives, and friends.
