

My daddy, My daddy.. oh, how I miss my daddy. He was my hero, my "bonehead old man" is what we called each other. Every day, all day, and every time we were on a call or face to face, I would think about how I'm going to miss this man dearly. A piece of me is now gone, I know God doesn't make mistakes, He will have no more sickness, pain, or worries. Just know, I know you are watching down on me. I know that it might not be what I want, but you are in a better place. I love you Daddy!

Love your one and only daughter, Marie Drew
