

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair;
Perhaps you sent beautiful flowers, if so, we saw them there.
Perhaps you sent or spoke kind words, as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day.
Whatever you did to console the heart, we thank you so much whatever the part

Psalm 23

"Even though I walk through the darkest valley, I will fear no evil, for you are with me; your rod and your staff, they comfort me."

Good parents give us priceless gifts--

A homelife rich with care

A deep appreciation for the joys of family sharing special moments touched with beauty. Good times filled with laughter and memories that warm our hearts and last forever

Obituary

Viola Ringer was born in Cincinnati, Ohio on August 19, 1937, to William and Maggie Gardenhire.

She was educated in the Cincinnati Public School System.

She had a long career working as a domestic professional and working in the school systems. She enjoyed cooking, cleaning, and shopping. She was a collector of many precious figurines, dolls, and trinkets which she cherished.

Viola was married February 28th, 1953, to Jesse Ringer (preceded in death) from that union she had seven children.

In 1963 she dedicated her life as one of the Jehovah Witnesses and later became a pioneer in her faith.

She is preceded in death by her parents, William and Maggie, grandparents, brother, Wilbur Williams; husband, Jessie Ringer, two granddaughters, DeWanda Ringer and Tiffany Jones; her oldest daughter, Jessie McGoogin and her oldest son, Dwight Ringer.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her children, Thelma Ringer, Gwendolyn Jones (Tyrone), Jennifer Powell and her two sons, Christopher and Jonathan Ringer, fourteen grandchildren, four great great grandchildren and she also leaves to cherish her memory her nieces, nephews and a host of beloved family members and loving friends
