

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures,
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul.
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil; for thou art with me;
Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies;
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life;
And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

Miss Me But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free!
Miss me a little - but not for long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me, but let me go.
For this journey that we all must take
And each must go alone;
It's all a part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the friends we know,
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.
Miss me, but let me go.

Obituary

Ms. Clara D. Matthews was born on September 1, 1937, in Hope Hull, Alabama, to the late Cornelius Matthews and Clara Mae Matthews. At an early age, Clara confessed Christ as her Lord and Savior and united with Big Zion Church, where she served faithfully.

In later years, Clara moved to Cincinnati, Ohio, to care for her aunt. During her journey, she attended several churches before joining Zion Temple Church under Pastor Johnson. There, she served diligently as an usher every Sunday and lovingly worked as a Mother of the Kitchen. Clara's service was not just a duty—it was her ministry, and she carried it out with grace, humility, and joy.

Clara was a devoted mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, sister, aunt, and friend. She loved her family deeply and unconditionally. She worked at Children's Hospital for 25 years before retiring, and even in retirement, she remained active, spending cherished time with her family and friends. Because she was never one to sit still, she later worked at Speedway for five additional years, touching even more lives with her kindness and warm spirit.

Clara was preceded in death by her parents, Cornelius and Clara Mae Matthews, and two children, Terry Matthews and Gail Matthews.

She leaves to cherish her precious memory five devoted daughters: Barbara Haurert (Mark Haurert), Jennifer Russell (Percy Dubose), Gloria Matthews (Richard Gentry), Wanda F. Matthews, and Stachel Matthews; and two loving sons, Tracey Matthews (Tracy Matthews) of Cincinnati, Ohio, and Conrad Sharpe of Montgomery, Alabama.

She is also remembered by one faithful nephew, Harrison Matthews (Cora Matthews); four beloved sisters, Inell M. Perkins, Zelma Patterson, Estelle Upshaw, and Nora Lee, all of Montgomery, Alabama; along with Pettus of Chicago, Illinois; and her brother, Ben Matthews. Clara was blessed with God-sisters Paula Rease Cole and Darlene Cole.

She also leaves a beautiful legacy of grandchildren—Rico, Ronald, Brian, Gerald, Kendra, Tracey Jr., Terry, Raymond, and Todd—as well as ten great-grandchildren, with two preceding her in death.

She also leaves behind three godsons, Reginal Cole, J.W. Cole, and Mike Williams; two goddaughters, Annette Williams and Tammie Govan; and a host of nieces, nephews, extended family, and friends who loved her dearly.

Clara lived a life of service, love, and unwavering faith. Her legacy will continue to shine through the many lives she touched.

2 Timothy 4:7-8

"I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. Now there is in store for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will award to me on that day—and not only to me, but also to all who have longed for his appearing."
