

Reflections of His Life

Frank Lamar Henneghan was born November 28, 1950, to the late Jessie and Queen Ester of Coward, S.C. He transitioned from this earthly life on March 8, 2026, in Columbia, S.C. after long life altering illnesses suffered from two strokes a few years ago.

He moved from Coward to Philadelphia, Pa in the early 1970's where he met and married Helen Louise White, formally of Eastover, S.C. Together they have four children: Angela D. Dennis (Kevin), Valerie J. Gaines, Christopher Lamar Henneghan, Jr. (Nayeeda), and Teresa M. Nelson (Kenneth) all of Philadelphia, Pa.; twelve grandchildren: William and Unique (Valerie), Chris, Kyree, Jade, Nylah, and Cynfini (Christopher), Devin, Tyreek, Kenese, Khalil, and Nikiese (Teresa); and nine great grandchildren.

He was proudly employed as both a construction worker in Philadelphia for many years and an over-the-road truck driver.

He and his loving wife Helen relocated back to Eastover, S.C. in August 2017. He joined with his wife Mt. Nebo Baptist Church where he attended faithfully until his transition from the earthly to the eternal.

Frank leaves to mourn his wife Helen, children, grandchildren, great grandchildren; one brother: Henry Henneghan of Kokomo, Indiana; two sisters: Patricia Henneghan of Philadelphia, Pa. and Ida Mae Rutledge of Camden, S.C.; a host of nieces, nephews, family and friends who cherish and celebrate his life. Frank will be missed.

Life is but a stopping place,
A pause in what's to be,
A resting place along the road,
to sweet eternity.

We all have different journeys,
Different paths along the way,
We all were meant to learn some things,
but never meant to stay...
Our destination is a place,
Far greater than we know.
For some the journey's quicker,
For some the journey's slow.
And when the journey finally ends,
We'll claim a great reward,
And find an everlasting peace,
Together with the Lord.

FOREVER IN OUR HEARTS
