

Peggy Lee Barry

Peggy Lee Barry was born January 7, 1959, to Eugene and Shirley (Shively) Barry in Douglas County of Omaha, NE. She was born 4th out of seven children who were all one year apart so she had plenty of playmates (who loved and fought with each other). She was a best friend to her mother.

Peggy always made everyone feel welcome and loved. All the neighborhood kids knew and loved her.

Peggy never missed St. Patrick's Day and was sometimes called "The Little Irish Dancer" and could really "cut a rug".

She loved living in the hills of Crescent, Iowa, and watching eagles and nature. Some of her hobbies were gardening (she kept the most beautiful flower beds), morel mushroom hunting, journaling, antiques, thrift shopping, casinos, and a good laugh. She loved her grandchildren and she was their biggest fan.

She never left one of us out. She always made sure that we felt special. She will be forever missed!

She'll Always Be Remembered

She'll always be remembered
As a woman, both strong and good,
Who gave her best for others
And who did the best she could.
She'll always be remembered
For all the joy she brought,
As a woman who made a difference
And a woman who meant a lot.
