HER STORY, THE REAL O.G.

“I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith.” – 2 Timothy 4:7

With heartfelt sorrow and unwavering faith in God’s Promise, we celebrate the life and homegoing of Lorine “Sister” Benjamin Haywood, a faithful servant of the Lord, who transitioned from labor to reward on Friday, June 5, 2026, at the age of 84.

Lorine was born on March 28, 1942 in Moncks Corner, South Carolina, a daughter of the late Freddie and Annie Benjamin, in a God-fearing home where the foundation of faith was laid very early. She accepted Christ as her personal savior at a very young age and lived a life rooted in prayer, service, and love.

Lorine attended the public schools of Berkeley County, graduating from Berkeley Training High School.

In her spare time, Lorine enjoyed spending time with family and friends: hosting family dinners, mixing spirits, playing card games, and bingo. Whatever it was, she definitely could draw a crowd.

Lorine was preceded in death by: her grandparents, Prezzy and Lottie Benjamin; her parents, Freddie and Annie Benjamin; her siblings, Harold Benjamin, Freddie Benjamin, Jr., Rebecca Reynolds, Lottie Reynolds, Shirley Robinson and Arlene Benjamin Moorer; and two granddaughters, Sierra Benjamin and Jasmine Benjamin.

Lorine leaves to cherish her precious memories: her loving brother, Leroy (Irma) Benjamin; her five loving children, Ruthie Benjamin, Anthony Benjamin, Brenda (Ricky) Burden, Lorie Benjamin and Yolanda Benjamin; a devoted beloved aunt, Learline (Sis) Martin, who she cherished deeply; two special nieces who were like her daughters, Yvonne (Rodney) Harley and Aneathia (Bubba) Walker. She leaves behind her deeply loved grandchildren, whom she raised with the devotion and care of a mother. Her legacy of unconditional love, strength, and guidance will live forever in the lives of the grandchildren she shaped and cherished. Her grandchildren, Terrance Benjamin, Michelle Benjamin, Dominick Benjamin, Carter Frank Whaley, Joshua, Jumon, and Jacobe Moore, Teka Benjamin, Tiffany

Benjamin, Eboni Benjamin, DeAngelo Benjamin, Kenyon Scott, Octavia Tucker, Keenan Benjamin, Jordon Benjamin, Desiree Benjamin, Norvanah Benjamin, and Jayden Benjamin; great-grandchildren; extended family members; nieces, nephews, and dear friends.

Lorine will always be remembered for her love of family, her caring heart, her wisdom, and the joy she brought into every room she entered. Her legacy of love and strength will continue to live on through all who were blessed to know her.

Though she is no longer with us in body; her spirit and love will remain forever in our hearts.

“Those we love don’t go away; they walk beside us every day.”

FOR GRANDMA

*You held our hands through every storm,
With gentle words so kind and warm.
Your love was steady, pure, and true;
A guiding light in all we’d do.*

*The kitchen filled with laughter sweet,
Your hugs could make a heart complete.
From card games played to bingo nights,
You made our darkest days feel bright.*

*Though heaven called you home to rest,
We know that God chose one of the best.
Your memory lives within our hearts,
A love like yours never departs.*

*We miss your smile, your caring ways,
And think about you every day.
Until we meet again someday,
In our hearts, Grandma, you will stay.*
