The Life Story of

Charles

MILLER CARSON SR.

Charles Miller Carson, Sr. was born on January 15, 1949, to George and Doris Carson in Goodman, Mississippi. He was the second child of nine children. Charles was baptized at the age of seven at St. Mark's Baptist Church in Mississippi.

When he moved to Chicago, Illinois, he became an active member of Trinity United Church of Christ. Charles was a member of the Men's Fellowship and was well known for cooking peach cobbler every third Sunday, which the members greatly enjoyed.

In 2014, Charles and his family moved to North Las Vegas, Nevada, where they joined Second Baptist Church. He attended regularly and formed many friendships within the church community.

Charles was an entrepreneur and owned several businesses. He, along with his uncle and cousin, owned a lounge in Chicago. Later, Charles started a business building, selling, and repairing computers. In 2000, he decided to attend truck driving school. He later purchased his own truck and started CG Trucking Company.

Charles was patient, loving, considerate, and made many friends throughout his life. He loved his family dearly, especially his grandchildren.

Charles was preceded in death by his parents: George and Doris Carson; his sisters: Tina, Shirley, and Mamie; and his brothers: Eugene, George, and Derry.

He leaves to cherish his memory his beloved wife, Gwendolyn Carson; his sons: Vernon Covington and Charles Carson Jr.; his daughters: Crystal Carson and Dr. Cheronda Pinkard; his granddaughters: Jeawa Carson, Chaya Carson, and Jamaia Gary, and his grandsons: Vernon and Vrentrell Covington, Charles Najee Carson, Elyja, Isaya, and Josiya Pinkard; great granddaughter Sabrina Covington; his sister Linda; his brother Michael; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Poem

God saw you getting tired,
And a cure was not to be;
So He put His arms around you,
And whispered, "Come to me."
With tearful eyes we watched you,
And saw you pass away;
Although we loved you dearly,
We could not make you stay.
A golden heart stopped beating,
Hard working hands at rest;
God broke our hearts to prove to us,
He only takes the best.

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a funeral spray, if so, we saw it there. Perhaps you were not here at all, just thought of us that day. Whatever you did to console our hearts, we thank you so much, whatever the part.
