

GOD'S GARDEN

God looked around His garden
And found an empty place.
He then looked down upon the earth
And saw your tired face.
He put his arms around you
And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful
He always takes the best.
He saw the road was getting rough
And the hills were hard to climb,
So He closed your weary eyelids
And whispered "Peace be thine".
It broke our hearts to lose you
But you didn't go alone,
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS:

The family of Ronald Lee Wright would like to thank each and every person in attendance for your presence during our hour of need. Your condolences, well-wishes, and especially your prayers have helped to dull the sting of our unfortunate loss. We extend a special thanks to our cousin, Cornell Taylor, for being such a wonderful blessing to our family. If, in the haste and stress of this very difficult time, we have forgotten to acknowledge or thank anyone; please pardon our oversight and accept our belated acknowledgment and our deepest and most heartfelt thank you .

A Tradition of Excellence. A Legacy of Caring.

OBITUARY

Ronald Lee Wright was born on February 7, 1950 in Cincinnati, Ohio, the son of Johnnie Lee Wright and Janie Mae Haley (nee Rucker). He graduated from Hughes High School in 1969 and enjoyed playing football for Big Red. After graduation, he worked as a pipe fitter and truck driver. He was a member of Plumbers, Pipe Fitters and MES Local Union No. 392. He was fondly called a "Gentle Giant".

He is survived by his siblings, Arnetha Gresham, Lynn (Michael) Crear, and Zenobia Blackmon; three nephews, Harold Jr. Gresham, Allen Gresham and Eric Gresham; one niece, Crystal T. Gresham; a grand niece, Angelia Gresham and grand nephew, Derrick Whittle; other relatives including Aunt, Geraldine Jones (Robert), and other special family members Ralph Jr. Rucker, Denise Hammond, and Robin Jones.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Berlina Wright and his parents, Janie Mae Haley (nee Rucker) and Johnny Lee Wright; Aunties, Daisy Rucker and Lucy Bea Kirkland; special family member, Robert Kirkland.

His favorite sayings were, "We have to be strong for one another." "Have faith in God." "Let go, let God." "Have faith in God." "Absent from the body is present with the Lord." "Love you all. "
