Her Beautiful Life

Mary Katherine Plummer

January 3, 1991 – October 24, 2026

Mary Katherine Plummer, also affectionately known as Keigh Power, was born on January 3, 1991, in Indianapolis, Indiana. She was raised by her mother, Susan Carter, and her grandparents, Jim and Marjorie, who played an important role in her upbringing and helped shape the woman she would become. Throughout her childhood, Keigh was raised in both Florida and North Carolina, where she experienced different places, people, and chapters of life that contributed to her journey.

Keigh was the daughter of Edward Eugene Wilson Jr. and Susan Carter. She was one of several siblings, sharing a special family bond with Ashley, Rebecca, Nina, Robert, Malik, Shaleem, and Tierra. Though she experienced the loss of loved ones, including her father and grandparents, their influence remains an important part of her story and legacy.

In 2018, Keigh married her husband, Calvin Plummer, beginning a new chapter in her life as they built their life together.

Above all, Keigh was a devoted mother whose children were an important part of her life. She was the proud mother of seven children: Robert (18), Leila (16), Makyra (14), Caiden (12), Kymani (11), Charming (8), and Cameron Indie, who preceded her in death on October 18, 2013. Her children represent a lasting part of her legacy, and the memories they shared will continue through the lives they live.

Keigh had a love for creativity and expression. She enjoyed reading and found joy in cooking and baking, hobbies that were meaningful parts of her life. Whether getting lost in a good book or spending time creating something in the kitchen, these were among the things that brought her happiness and allowed her to express herself. Keigh was also a phenomenal actress with a passion and talent for the performing arts. Through her work, she brought characters and stories to life, leaving her mark through multiple projects that have been released, as well as others still to come. Her creativity, dedication, and ability to express herself through acting were important parts of who she was. Her artistic contributions will continue to be remembered, allowing pieces of her talent and passion to live on.

Keigh's life was made up of family, creativity, experiences, and the many people whose lives she touched. While her passing leaves an immeasurable void in the hearts of those who loved her, her story does not end here. Her husband, children, family, memories, and creative work will remain a part of the legacy she leaves behind.

May Keigh forever be remembered for the life she lived, the love she shared, the talent she displayed, and the memories that will continue to live on in the hearts of those who knew and loved her.

Forever loved. Forever remembered. Forever missed.

A LIFE WELL LIVED

A Legacy Remembered

To My Beloved Wife

My Katherine,

I never imagined I would have to find words for a goodbye like this. There is so much I still want to say to you, and so much I wish we still had time to do.

I will miss the ordinary moments most: your voice, your smile, and the comfort of simply knowing you were there. The life we shared holds memories that belong to us, and I will carry them with tenderness.

Thank you for the love you gave me and for allowing me to share in your life. Even now, when words feel too small, I am grateful that our paths became one.

I will speak your name. I will remember you in the quiet moments. And I will hold the love we shared close to my heart for the rest of my days.

Forever your husband,
Calvin Plummer

My Precious Daughter

My sweet Katherine,

From the moment you became my daughter, a part of my heart belonged to you. Nothing could have prepared me for the pain of having to say goodbye.

When I think of you, I see more than the years we were given. I see the little girl I held, the woman you became, and the familiar smile I will always recognize. You will always be my child.

There are memories I will return to again and again. I will hear your voice in my heart and find you in the little things that remind me of you. Some days those memories will bring tears. I pray that, in time, they will bring comfort too.

Thank you for the gift of being your mother. If love alone could have kept you here, I would never have had to let you go. Rest peacefully, my precious daughter. My love goes with you.

Always your mother,
Susan Carter

A FAREWELL OF LOVE

Until We Meet Again

To everyone I love,

When you think of me, I hope you remember a moment that makes you smile. Tell the stories. Keep the photographs. Say my name when a memory comes to you.

To my six precious children, Robert, Leila, Makyra, Caiden, Kymani, and Charming: you will always be my babies. I love each of you more than words can hold. Stay close, take care of one another, and never doubt how deeply you are loved.

To my family and loved ones, please surround my children with love. Be patient with their grief, listen to them, and help guide them as they grow. Look after them, hold them close, and remind them of their mother's love. Please keep showing up for them, as well as my nieces and nephews.

Thank you for the love we shared. Be gentle with yourselves, hold one another close, and keep living.

With all my love,
Keigh
