

Kelly Anne Culley
March 4, 1960 — March 30, 2018

Kelly Anne Culley passed away March 30 from complications from diabetes at her home in Albany at the age of 58.

She was born on March 4, 1960 to Sally and Ray Culley in Silverton, Oregon. She lived in Silverton and Alsea before moving to Corvallis where she graduated from Crescent Valley High School.

She is survived by her son, Brennen Culley of Albany; mother, Sally Culley of Corvallis; brothers, Doug of Alsea, Dennis (Peggy) of Sanders, Idaho, Kevin (Janice) of Sioux City, Iowa, and Ken (Debbie) of Corvallis; and one sister, Cindy (Dwayne) McPhetridge, of Dallas, Oregon. She leaves a truckload of nieces and nephews she loved dearly.

Her father, Ray Culley, preceded her in death in 2010.

Kelly loved gardening, decorating, music, and she was always willing to take over the planning of any family event. She cherished her time spent with her son Brennen and was so proud of the man he had become.

Kelly had a giving heart, always willing to step in and help anyone who needed it. She was a one-of-a-kind who will be greatly missed.

A celebration of life will be at 2 p.m. on Saturday, April 7, at her mother's home, 1167 NW Country Hills Drive, Corvallis, beginning with a short service.

In Loving Memory Of

Kelli Anne Culley

Age 58

God's finger touched her and she Slipped away

From earth's dark shadows to a Brighter day;

*God saw the road was getting rough,
The hills were hard to climb;*

*He gently closed her weary eyes,
And whispered, "Peace be thine,"*

*To a beautiful garden this friend has gone,
To a land of perfect rest;*

*Though she is gone she still lives on
In the garden of memory.*

even though he dies; and whoever lives and believes in me will never die.*

Do you believe this?"
