

Exodus 33:14

The LORD replied, "My Presence will go with you, and I will give you rest."

Matthew 11:28-30

Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

Philippians 4:6

Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God.

Obituary

Ronald "Ron" Harris, born on February 11, 1950, in Cincinnati, Ohio, was a cherished member of his community and a beloved friend to many. Known for his free-spirited nature and love for his neighborhood, Ron's infectious energy and warm personality left a lasting impression on everyone he met.

Ron was a social butterfly, always eager to connect with those around him. His friendly demeanor and genuine interest in others made him a friend to many. Throughout his life, Ron took on various jobs to make extra money and make ends meet, embodying a resilient and adaptable spirit.

Ron once reflected on his life, saying he had lived a good life and had the chance to do everything he wanted to do. This sentiment captures the essence of a man who embraced life with open arms and no regrets.

Ron was the second oldest of four children. He is survived by his two siblings, Gerald and Robin Johnson, five nephews, eight great-nephews, four great-nieces, two great-great-nieces, one great-great-nephew, and numerous special friends who were like family to him.

Ron Harris will be remembered for his kindness, his love for his community, and the joy he brought to those around him. His legacy of warmth and friendship will live on in the hearts of all who knew him.
