

GOD HAD HER COVERED

*Soft-spoken and gentle, yet faithful and strong,
Betty trusted in God her whole journey long.
Through sickness and trials, she stood without fear,
Knowing the Lord was forever near.*

*She loved through her actions, with kindness and care,
For nieces and nephews, she always was there.
From basketball memories to old western shows,
She treasured life's blessings wherever she'd go.*

*Now her battles are over, her suffering is through,
Her faith has carried her safely home, too.
Though deeply missed by the hearts that she touched,
Her family will cherish the woman they loved so much.*

*Rest peacefully, Betty, your victory is won;
Your earthly journey is faithfully done.
And the words that sustained you still comfort us today:
"God had me covered"—every step of the way.*

REFLECTIONS OF Her Life

“Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.” ~ Psalm 23:4

Mrs. Betty T. Stevens, a beloved matriarch, was born on April 4, 1945, in Moncks Corner, South Carolina, to the late Mrs. Virginia Thompson Wilson. She departed this life on Saturday, August 23, 2026, at Trident Regional Medical Center in North Charleston, South Carolina, with her loving family by her side.

Betty received her formal education in the Berkeley County School System and graduated from Berkeley Training High School in 1965. While in school, she was an active member of the basketball team. After graduating from high school, she began working for the Berkeley County School System as a custodian, where she remained until retiring due to illness.

At an early age, Betty accepted Christ and joined Wesley United Methodist Church, where she was a faithful member and sang in the choir. She was united in Holy Matrimony to the late Mr. David Stevens, Jr.

Betty was a soft-spoken woman of strong and unwavering faith. It was that faith that helped make her a fighter. Throughout her lifetime, she battled several illnesses and overcame many of them with grace and dignity. She never felt sorry for herself and always believed that God had her covered.

In her leisure time, Betty enjoyed watching old westerns and sports on television, especially basketball. Although she did not have any children of her own, she displayed a consistent and loving presence in the lives of her grandnieces and grandnephews.

Betty also enjoyed cooking, and one of her favorite foods to prepare was croaker fish. Whether enjoying the things she loved or spending time with her family, Betty found joy in life's simple pleasures.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Mr. David Stevens, Jr.; her mother, Mrs. Virginia T. Wilson; stepfather, Mr. Mack Wilson, Sr.; her brothers, Mr. Mack Wilson, Jr. and Mr. John A. Thompson, Sr.; her special aunts, Mrs. Phyllis T. Myers and Mrs. Rosa Lee Heyward; sisters-in-law, Mrs. Pearl S. Reid, Mrs. Albertha S. Wigfall, and Ms. Viola Stevens; and one who was like a brother to her, Mr. Clarence Palmer.

Betty leaves to cherish her memory her siblings, Mr. William H. Wilson (Shelia), Mr. Charles Wilson of Moncks Corner, SC, and Mr. Edward A. Wilson of North Charleston, SC; special nieces, Mrs. Ann R. Tucker of Moncks Corner, SC and Mrs. Carolyn S. Wilson of Plainfield, NJ; and a host of other nieces, nephews, relatives, and friends who will forever cherish her memory.

Family Tribute

Aunt Betty was a strong, nurturing presence in the lives of her nieces and nephews, always demonstrating love, compassion, and unwavering care. She had a special way of making everyone feel loved and welcomed. With her grandnieces and grandnephews, Aunt Betty often took on a maternal role, providing guidance, comfort, and affection while creating cherished memories along the way. She made sure their summers were filled with laughter, fun, love, and, and unforgettable moments that they will carry with them for years to come. Her nurturing spirit and the love she shared with her family will forever remain a beautiful part of who she was.
