O B I T U A R Y

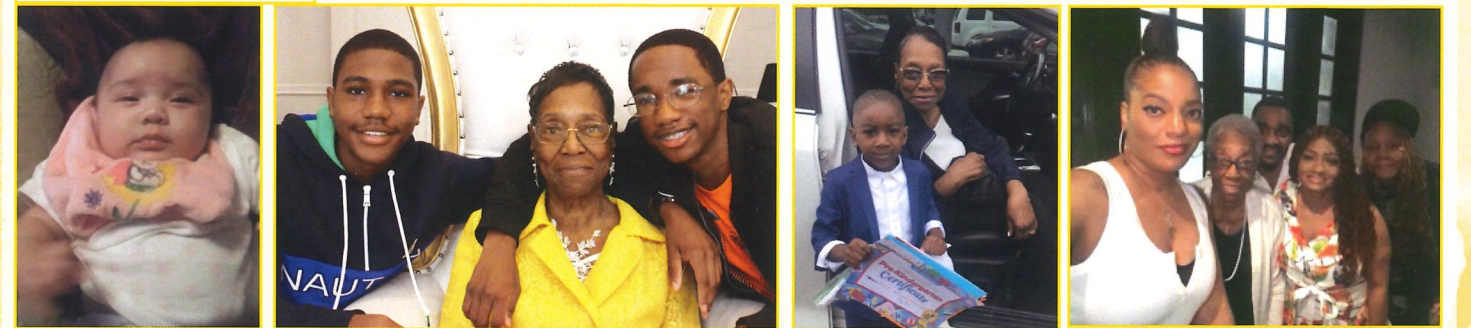

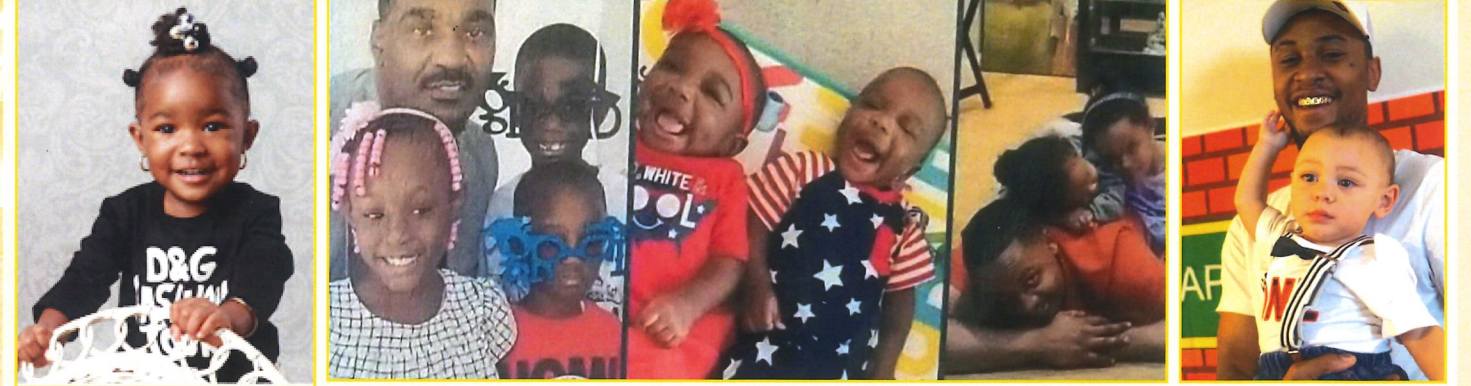

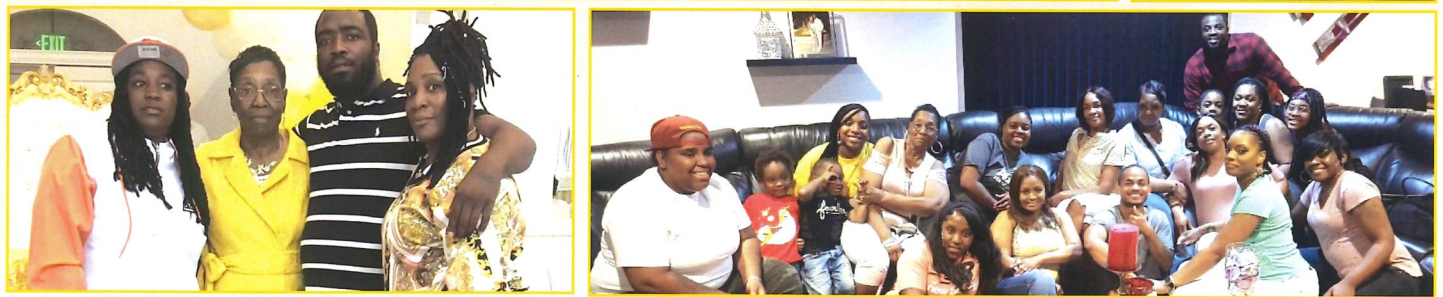

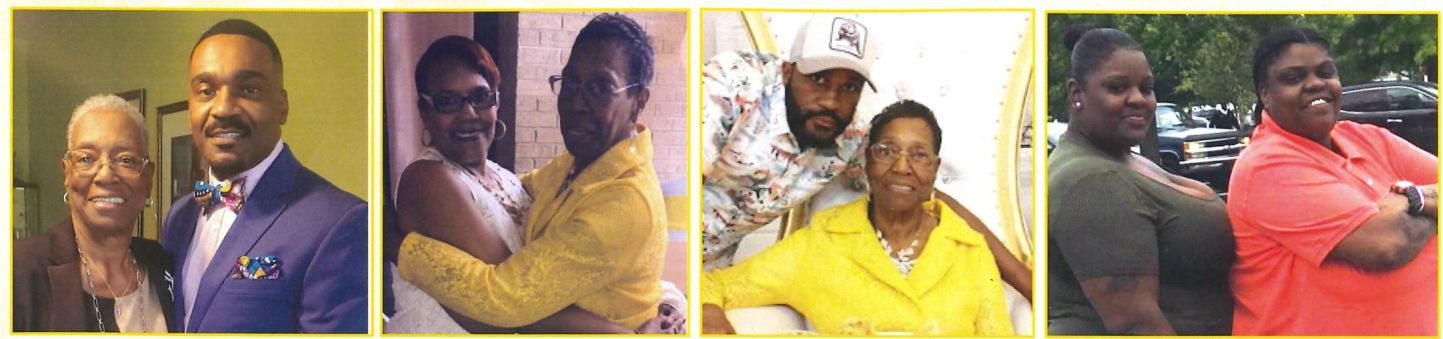

*M*ARIAN VIRGINIA JENKINS, daughter of the late Helen Lewis and James R. Lewis, was born October 6, 1938, and was raised by her loving grandmother – Janie Howard in Baltimore City. Marian departed this life suddenly on October 18, 2022. Marian, affectionately known as “Dimples,” graduated from Douglass High School. Soon after, Marian married Charles Lee Jenkins, Sr. and out of that union were five children.

Marian was a member of New Mt. Zion Baptist Church. Later, she joined Shiloh United Apostolic Church. Marian had an abundance of love in which she shared with her family, friends, and everyone she encountered. When Marian entered the room the first thing one would notice was her smile and her dimples. Marian worked various jobs until she found her passion as a private duty nurse aide for Professional Care & Elizabeth Cooney Agency. Marian served on the PTA at Westside Elementary School, and she was a dedicated member of the Maryland Board of Elections. Additionally, Marian was West Baltimore’s favorite Avon Lady. Marian loved cooking and baking, everyone loved her food and her baked goods. After Marian retired, she raised her granddaughter, Shawdell Cheatham, and her great-grands, My’Neak and Justin Carter.

She is preceded in death by her husband Charles, Sr., daughter Pauline D. Smith, grandchildren Shammarh T. Jenkins and Dennis Conaway Jr., great-granddaughters Catara A. Rogers and Ky’Leigh M. Rogers, and brother-in-law Warren Owens.

Marian leaves to cherish: three daughters, Darlene E. Dinkins, Anita Jenkins and Lisa V. Mimms; son, Charles Lee Jenkins Jr.; two sisters, Alicia “Cookie” Owens (of St. Louis) and Roxanne Moye (of Baltimore); three sons-in-law, Saul Dinkins, Edward Smith, Ricky Mimms; daughter-in-law, Andrea Jenkins; nineteen grandchildren, Shanika, Saul Jr., Darlene, Sierra, Shauntaya, Tolu, Shawdell, Bubba, Nika, Tyesha, Maurice, Mike, Darryl, Donte, Charles III, Sharda, Dontae, Alethia and Genethia; thirty great-grandchildren, My’Neak, Justin, Tyree, Tyler, London, Nori, Lyn Lyn, Zaire, Makayla, Aubree, Creon, Kay’Jah, Kiara, Tyrique, Michael Jr., Marquese, Dashon, Asia, Dominique, Kemi, Maurice Jr., Corey, Dakota, Anyra, Zion, Zuri, Damaya, Dontae, Demonte, Micah; great-great-grandchildren, Carter, Christian, and Creon, Cousin David; and a host of nieces, nephews and friends.

Broken Chain

*We little knew that morning,
God was going to call your name;
In life we loved you dearly,
In death, we do the same.*

*It broke our hearts to lose you,
You did not go alone;
For part of us went with you,
The day God called you home.*

*You left us beautiful memories,
Your love is still our guide;
And although we cannot see you,
You are always at our side.*

*Our family chain is broken,
And nothing seems the same;
But as God calls us one by one,
The chain will link again.*

From Your Loving Children

Grandma

We thought of you today
but that is nothing new,
We thought about you yesterday
and days before that too.
We think of you in silence
we often speak your name,
All we have are memories
and your picture in a frame.
Your memory is a keepsake
from which will never part,
God has you in His arms,
we have you in our hearts.
From Your Loving Grandchildren

My Grandma

I loved to come to visit,
spending time with you,
It never even mattered,
just what we chose to do.
For love was all around us,
and warmth was everywhere.
And in every moment spent with you,
I felt your loving care.
From Your Loving Great-Grandchildren
