Obituary

CARLTON KEITH ROBINSON, son of the late Avonia Daniels and Rudolph Mills, was born November 13, 1962 in Philadelphia, PA. He was called to his eternal rest on the afternoon of February 18, 2023.

He was educated in the Philadelphia school system. He graduated from Simon Grats High School.

After high school, Carlton enlisted in the military. He was a Ranger in the Army.

Carlton relocated to Baltimore, MD in 2010. It was there that he met his future wife, Denise. Three years later, they were married.

Carlton really loved his Mountain Dew sodas and the Philadelphia Eagles. He also loved shows that specialized in revamping cars. That was where he got some of his ideas for fixing up his car. He was a part of GQ car club located in Philadelphia where he won several trophies. He would wipe down his car every day; 2 to 3 times a day. He cleaned his car so much that Denise would say, "He's going to wipe the paint off that car if he wipes it one more time."

Carlton was preceded in death by his mother Avonia Daniels, father Rudolph Mills, and step father Joseph Daniels.

Carlton leaves to cherish his memory: his loving wife, Denise Robinson; sister, Lois Robinson; brother, Charles Brown; three daughters, Josette Robinson, La'Sha Love, and Sha-Nay Evans; two sons, Carlton Robinson and Corey Robinson; and a host of nieces, nephews, other family and friends.

My husband, my everything, I'm missing you so much. I'm going to miss all the beautiful cards you would get me for every holiday and just because. The words in the cards spoke volumes of how you felt about me. I'm going to miss our every week crab feast, which involved only you and me. No matter the season or the reason, crabs always warmed our hearts. Rest my love, until we meet again.

*Your Loving Wife,
DENISE*

READING OF THE OBITUARY

Sha-Nay Evans

Pop Pop,

*You were like a second father to us.
We will miss your jovial spirit, laughter, and kind heart.
Thanks for sharing your bright light with us.*

*Love Always,
LA'SHA & SHA-NAY*

I Am Always With You

*I am always with you
When I am gone, release me, let me go.
I have so many things to see and do,
You mustn't tie yourself to me with too many tears,
But be thankful we had so many good years.
I gave you my love, and you can only guess
How much you've given me in happiness.
I thank you for the love that you have shown,
But now it is time I traveled on alone.
So grieve for me a while, if grieve you must
Then let your grief be comforted by trust
That it is only for a while that we must part,
So treasure the memories within your heart.
I won't be far away for life goes on.
And if you need me, call and I will come.
Though you can't see or touch me, I will be near
And if you listen with your heart, you'll hear
All my love around you soft and clear
And then, when you come this way alone,
I'll greet you with a smile and a "Welcome Home."*

*Your Daughter,
JOSETTE*
