

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

We, the family of Mother Sallie Allen Jones, wish to express our sincerest and heartfelt gratitude, love, appreciation, and thanks for the many prayers, phone calls, acts of kindness, expressions of love, and gifts given to our family during our time of bereavement. We have drawn strength from the concern that has been showered upon our family. We humbly ask that you keep us lifted in prayer beyond today. Special thanks to First Choice Home Care, LLC and Baptist Memorial Hospital-Yazoo for your diligence and care. May God richly bless each of you.

LIFE'S STORY

Mother Sallie Allen Jones

A LIFE AND LEGACY OF LOVE

Sallie Allen Jones, daughter, mother, aunt, and friend was affectionately known as "Lady Allen."

Sallie Allen was born in Yazoo County to the union of Mr. and Mrs. George and Sallie Allen on May 16, 1921. She was the youngest of 8 children. She lived in Yazoo City, Mississippi, for the majority of her life.

Sallie professed her life to Christ at an early age and served as an active member at New Pilgrim Rest Missionary Baptist Church. As a Mother of the church, she served diligently until her health failed.

During her younger years, Mother Allen was an active member of the Order of the Eastern Star.

She was a lively woman that enjoyed hunting, fishing, farming, and spending time with her family and friends.

Anyone who knew Mother Allen knew she had an immense passion for life. Mother Allen had just turned 102 at the time of her departure, and she affected many people in her lifetime. She was a jokester who loved to make others laugh and have a good time. She was very committed to her classmates, friends, and most of all, her family.

Mother Sallie Allen was preceded in death by her parents and siblings, Frances Allen Richardson, Rosie Lee Polk, Andrew Turner, Wash Allen, George Allen, and Corinne Allen Robb.

Mother Sallie Allen had special friends in Mr. Claude Collum and Mrs. Mary Jones, and a very special niece, Bettie Priest, all of Yazoo City, Mississippi, that she greatly appreciated.

Mother Sallie Allen is survived by her daughter, Lillian Hill; her grandchildren, Rachele Hill and Reginald (Meko) Hill; six great-grandchildren, Ashley (Johnny) Johnson, Adolphus Zachary, Azia Hill, Alexander Hill, Ashton Woolfolk, and Ayanna Hill; and seven great-great-grandchildren, Nevaeh Zachary, Aylanna Zachary, Xavier Johnson, Evelyn Johnson, A'meila Woolfolk, Alexander Hill, Jr., and Asher Woolfolk.

Mother Allen passed on Wednesday, June 28, 2023, at the Baptist Hospital in Yazoo City. Memories of her will forever be cherished.

MEDITATIONS FROM SALLIE ALLEN JONES

I'll be seeing you
I am at rest, so don't cry.
It will be easier as time goes by.
I have done my best to live a good life.
I know if I did, I could be with Christ.
As my body lies here, it's only a shell.
God has called me home, and my God, I had done well.
Now, I am happy and very content.
For the things I've done wrong I repent.
You know and I know that it is hard on Earth.
See you. See ya'll . . .
