

Our Daughter

Tiffany, from your very first breath to your last, you brought a special light into our lives that can never be dimmed. No parent should ever have to say goodbye to their child, but watching you grow into a strong, independent woman, mother, and grandmother was our greatest pride. We take comfort in knowing that the bond, laughter, and memories we shared will live in our hearts forever. You fought hard, lived life to the fullest, and loved us with all your heart. Rest in peace, sweet Tee—you will forever be our baby girl."

— Love always, Mom & Dad

Forever Our Sister

You were the spark in every room,
The laugh that chased away the gloom.

A sister's love is deep and true,
And heaven gained a gem in you.

From childhood days to years gone by,
We shared a bond time cannot buy.
Save us a spot on the dance floor above,
Until we meet again, sweet Tee, with love.

— Your Brother & Sister, HB & Iesha

Obituary

Tiffany Renee Miller was born on April 2, 1986, in Cincinnati, Ohio, to Tonya and Charles Holloman, whose unconditional love and presence remained a constant anchor throughout her life. On July 31, 2026, she completed her earthly journey, leaving behind a legacy of warmth, laughter, and cherished memories.

A proud Cincinnati native, Tiffany attended Western Hills High School and developed an early drive for self-reliance at White Castle. She built a strong work ethic through years of environmental services at local hospitals, including Cincinnati Children's and Good Samaritan. She lived her life with extraordinary devotion—a loving mother, a fierce protector of her family, and a hard worker who poured her whole heart into caring for children every single day.

Tiffany lived life in full color—working hard to enjoy every bit of life. She was always the spark of the party, happiest when dancing, laughing, or showing off her signature “Percolator.” She took deep pride in self-care, a clean home, relaxing baths, and keeping her hair and nails pristine.

Tiffany was baptized as an infant at St. Joseph Catholic Church, with Pamela Farley and the late Melvin Menefield serving as her godparents. Throughout her entire life, Tiffany was uniquely blessed with the deep devotion of her godmother, Lanita Garr, whose motherly love, comfort, and steady support meant the world to her. Through these strong family roots, She was blessed with a lifetime bond shared alongside her god-siblings—Melva, Kenita, William, and Antonia.

She was preceded in death by her maternal grandparents, Varnetta Miller-Chandler and James Miller; her step-grandfather, William Chandler; and her paternal grandfather, Clarence Anderson.

Tiffany's legacy continues through her devoted parents, Tonya and Charles Holloman; her four children, A'kizha Miller, Ronney Williams, Ronnell Williams, and Jenó Leaks; her older brother, Herbert Miller; her younger sister, Iesha Holloman; and her paternal grandmother, Geneva Holloman. Her proudest recent role was caring full-time for her grandson, Ah'kari Anderson, who was her entire world. She also shared the last few years with her devoted partner, Carl Chaney (Dion).

She leaves to cherish her memory her nieces and nephews, Shanya, Charkya, Ashton, Cameron, Paris, and Herbert; her special great-niece, Tashyla; her aunts, uncles, extended family, and dear friends.

Rest peacefully, Tiffany—your light will forever shine bright.
