

“End of the Beginning”
By Jim Northrup

*Someone said we begin to die
the minute we are born.
Death is a part of life.
Who knows why the Creator
thins the herd.
Another old saying says
we must all be prepared to give up those we love or die first.
Take time to mourn.
Take time to remember.
Everything happens in cycles.
The pain you feel was once balanced by someone’s joy
when that baby was born.
The loss you feel today will be replaced by good long-lasting memories.
Is there a message here? Yah, treat others like this is your last day above ground.*

Judy was born in Bemidji, MN, on October 5, 1938, to Ole and Helena (Michaelson) Paulson. She was 4th in a line of 5 girls, Geraldine, Joan, Bernadette, and Claudia, all of whom preceded her in death.

Judy graduated from Bemidji High School in 1956. After High School, she attended Bemidji State University attaining a B.S. It was around this time she met and wed Richard (Dick) Bluth.

The pair moved to Morris in 1963, where Dick built and managed the A & W Drive-In, and Judy began her teaching career. She taught at Morris Elementary School until she retired.

Judy was an avid reader and a constant at the Morris Public Library. If she wasn't reading a book she was probably working at one of the multiple organizations around town she was involved with. She loved getting together with friends; teacher lunches and Thursday "discussion group" were favorites.

Judy passed away celebrating Thanksgiving with her family on November 27, 2025 at the age of 87.

Judy was preceded in death by her husband, Dick, and her four sisters. She is survived by one son, Willie (Sandy) of Minneapolis, one daughter, Mary (Paul) Kempton of Baxter; four grandchildren: Chloe, Noah, Andrew, and Collin; one brother-in-law, Gary (Pat) Bluth of Baxter and many nieces and nephews.

No regrets.
