Obituary

Sandra Lynn McBeth was born January 20, 1949, to her proud parents, Doris McBeth, Sr., and Minnie Brown McBeth. She gained her beautiful angel wings on April 15, 2025.

Sandra received her education from Piney Woods School until junior high school, she then attended North Kitsap where she graduated high school. Sandra attended college at Washington State. She worked for the state of Illinois for several years, she also worked for the America Girl Scouts of America for 25 years and Seabury Western Theological Seminary.

Sandra loved the Lord and spent time praising him in church. She accepted Christ at an early age and was a member of Mt. Moriah Missionary Baptist Church in Chicago, Illinois and was a member of the church choir. When she moved back to Mississippi, she became a faithful member of Jerusalem Temple Church until her health failed.

Sandra loved her children and adored her precious grandchildren. She enjoyed preparing meals for her family, traveling various places, and listening to the "Blues"!

Sandra met her life-long loving partner, Excell Brazzil in Chicago and the two of them spent fifty-five wonderful years together until her death.

Sandra was preceded in death by her parents, Doris McBeth, Sr., and Minnie Brown McBeth, four brothers, Terry McBeath, Jerry McBeath, Doris McBeth, Jr., Larry Joe McBeth, and one sister, Jeanette McBeth-Smith.

Sandra leaves to cherish her precious memories, her loving partner, Excell Brazzil, of Philadelphia, Mississippi, two daughters, Maria McBeth and Paris Brazzil, one son, Jermaine McBeth, all of Chicago, Illinois, five grandchildren, Brittany Hargrove, Adonis Hargrove, Jr., Justin McBeth, Taya McBeth and Janelle McBeth, four great-grandchildren, London Coleman, Kemila Coleman, Emani Coleman, Emani Hargrove, Elani Hargrove, and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Tributes of Love

"The Moment That You Left Me"

My heart split in two. One side is filled with memories, the other side died with you. I often lay awake at night when the world is fast asleep and take a walk down memory lane with tears upon my cheek. Remembering you is easy, I do it every day. But missing you is a heartache that never goes away. I hold you tight within my heart and there you shall remain. You see life has gone on without you but will never be the same.

*~Your Loving Partner,
Excell*

A Letter To My Mom

Words can't express how much you mean to me. Living this life with you for my mother has been such a joy. I just want to thank God for blessing me with a mother like you. It's going to be hard living the rest of this life on this earth without you being physically here, but I know your spirit will always be right here with me, helping me and guiding me like you always do. Throughout my life I've seen you get sick from time to time, and you always fought your way back to wellness, showing your strength and how to never give up. These last battles with sickness got the best of you and you still never gave up, but God has the last say and God called you home to rest. I will miss your hugs and kisses, and most of all seeing that beautiful smile and hearing that beautiful laugh. (That smile and laugh was heaven on earth to me!) Like we told each other all the time, I Love You Soooooo Much! Till we meet again.

*~Your Baby Forever And Eternity

Tributes of Love

Because of You

Because of you...I learned to love and have compassion. I learned to be gentle and kind. I learned to be fearless. I learned to walk by faith and not by sight. You were my first teacher and though some lessons took longer to learn than others, your consistency and love gave me the guidance that I needed. Thank you for your unconditional love, protection, and courage! Although this world will be a dimmer place without your warm embrace and infectious smile, I know that you are in a better place. I will miss you immensely!

*~I Love You Eternally!
Your Favorite Son!*

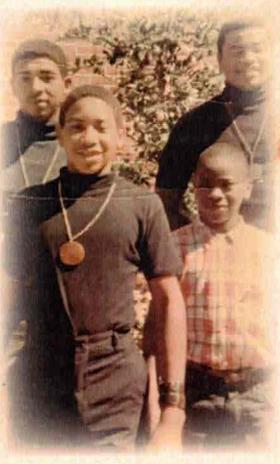

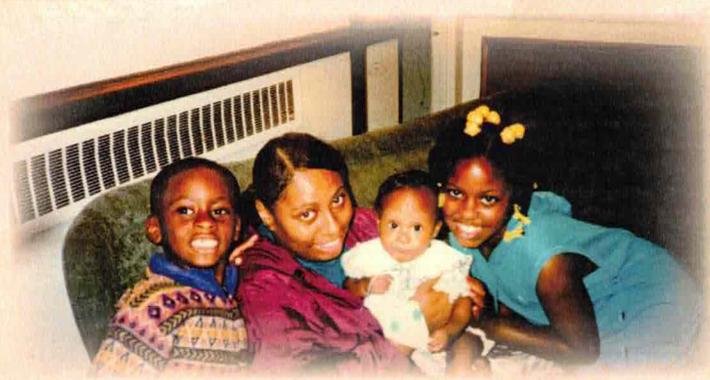

You're A Gift From The Lord

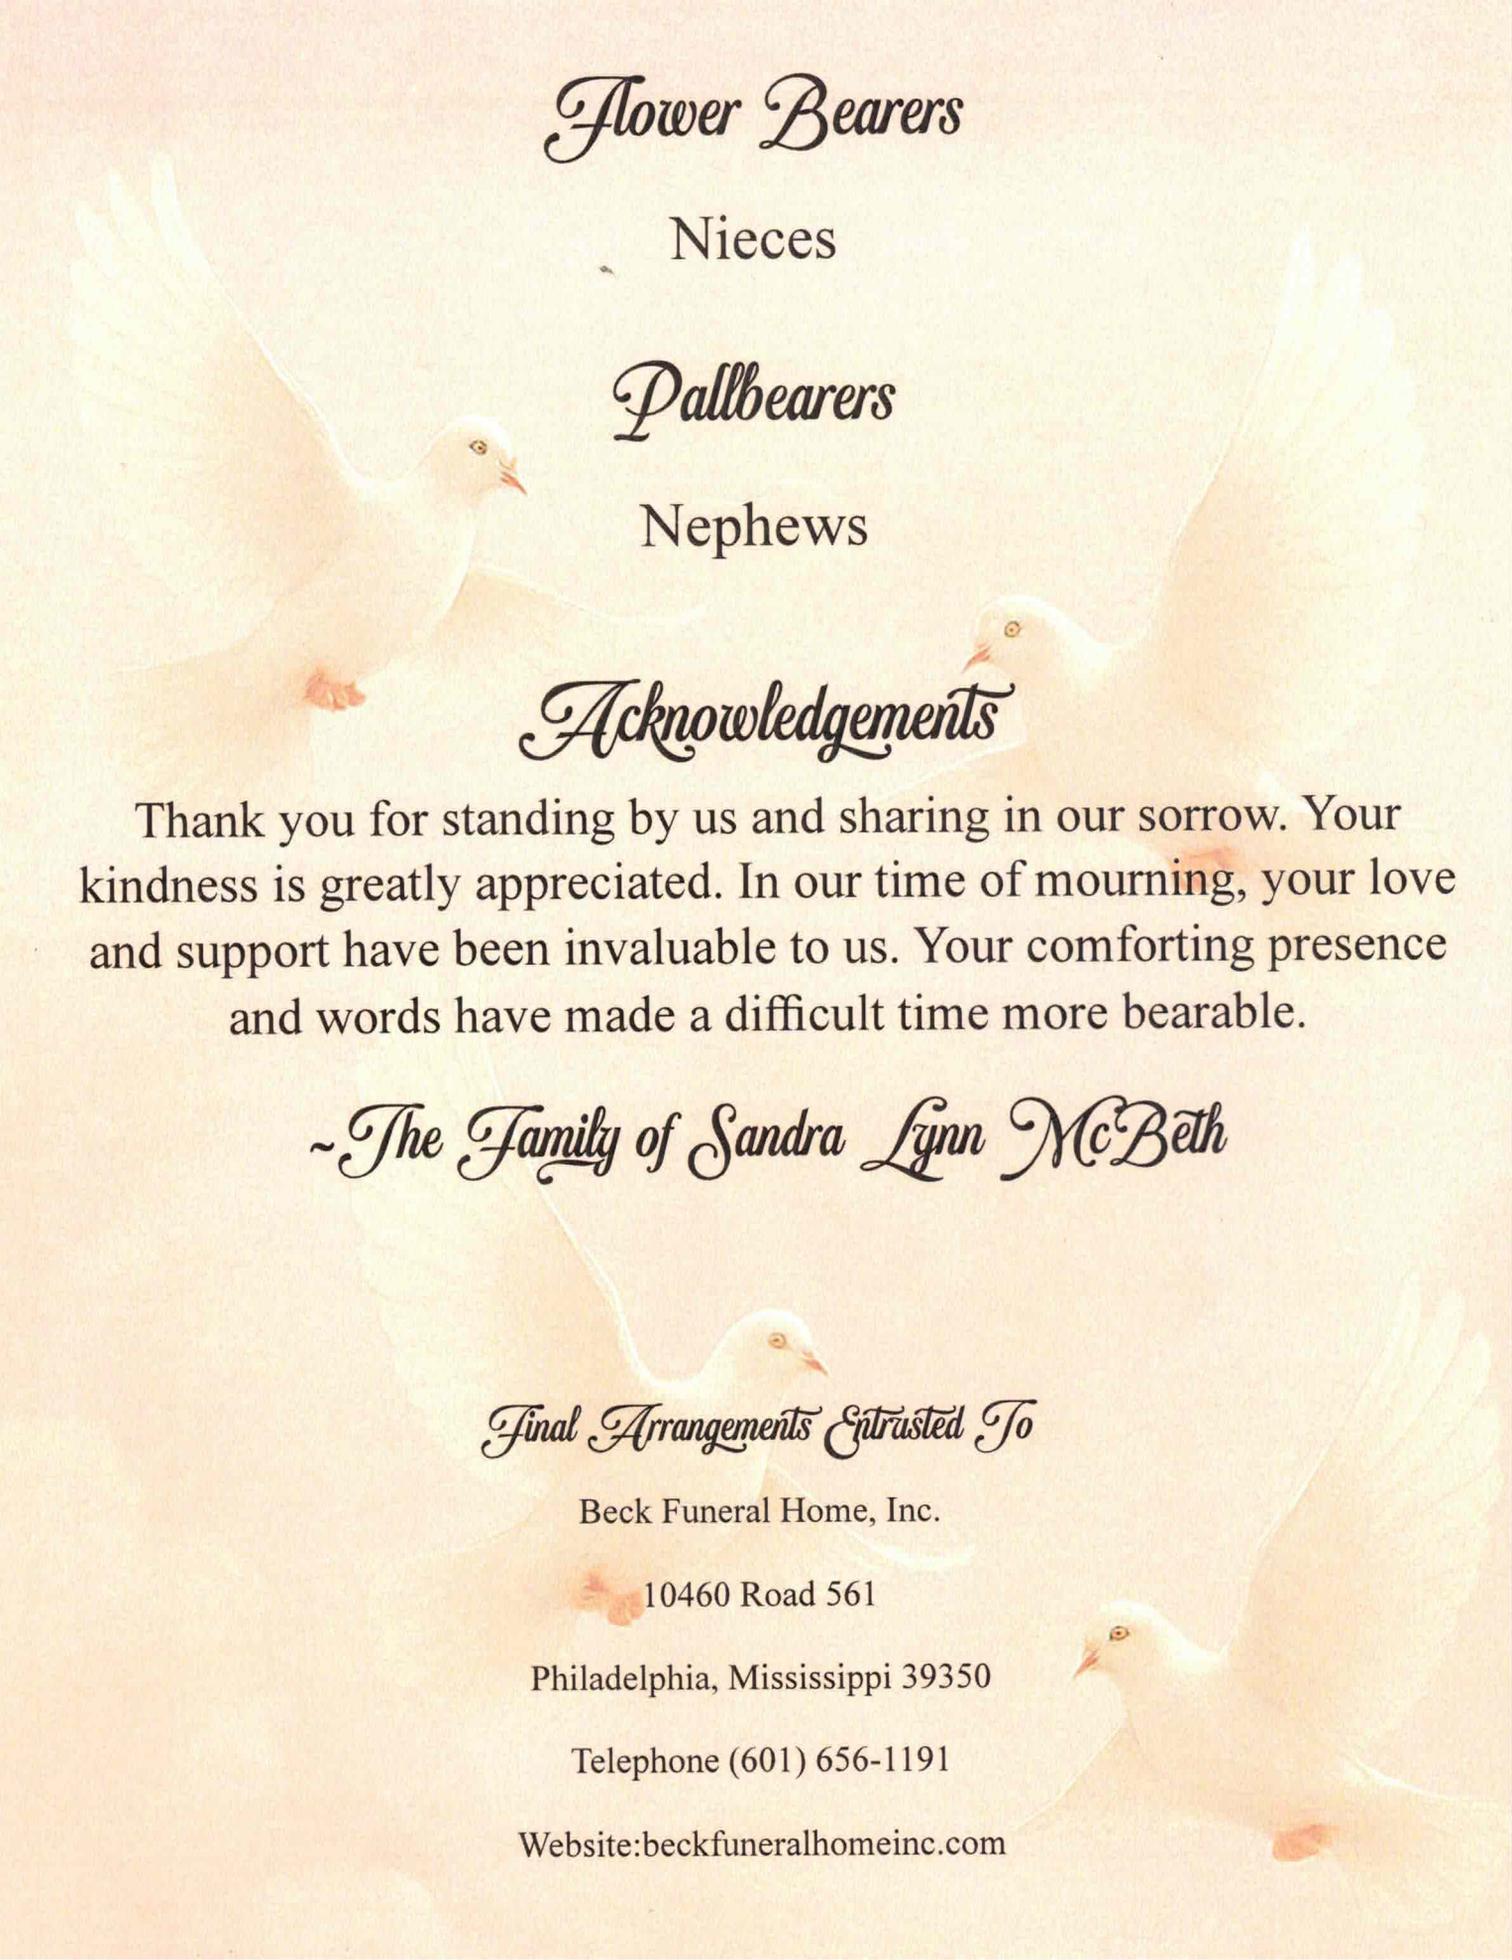

The kind of woman who brings life wherever she goes, who brightens up the room and encourages those in it, the one who's ready with a hug or a smile just when you need it. You're celebrated today because—to know you is to love you...and to love you is to be especially blessed!

*~With Love,
Maria*
