Obituary

"Gods Glorius Angel" better known as JANICE ANN STREETER was born in Farmville, North Carolina. On April 7, 1943 this beautiful soul was born to Clara Mae Streeter Carmon and Raymond Joyner. She was raised in Durham, North Carolina by her mother Clara Mae Streeter Carmon and her stepfather Maceo Carmon. Janice spent most of her adult life in her proclaimed hometown of New York City for over 40 years where she lived life to the fullest. The latter part of her life was spent in Baltimore, Maryland where she laid her foundation until entering her heavenly home on April 22, 2023.

Janice Streeter was a humble, God-fearing Woman who many relied on for all purposes of life especially family and friends. She trusted GOD and reminded you to never lose faith in his word. She had a humble, trusting spirit filled with humor and joy even throughout her health struggles. She never gave up on life even until the end. She gave you a honest word when needed and never complained about the challenges of life. She proved what it meant to be one of "GOD'S HEAVENLY ANGELS ON EARTH".

Janice Streeter worked for the Board of Education of New York City, New York for over 35 years until her retirement when her health declined. She had many other professions as a Caterer and a In House Day Care Provider. She was a Boy Scout and Girl Scout leader, and the Vice President of the PTA in New York City. This woman loved her hobbies of cooking, crocheting and many other attributes. She was truly known for her soul food cooking which gave you a warm feeling inside after consuming the meal. Everyone could feel her heart through her cooking.

Janice Ann Streeter leaves to cherish her Son Corey Streeter and Daughter Kemi Streeter. She leaves her "ONE AND ONLY" Grandson Cedric Streeter who was her heart and Soul. She also leaves behind sisters Alice Faye Carmon and Linda Joyce Carmon-Thompson. She leaves behind her honorary God Sisters Shirley Lindsay and MaryAnn Marks and (Pansy and Gwen who proceeded her in Death). She leaves behind a host of many other nephews, nieces, godchildren, and friends to cherish her love.
