

My Mom In Heaven

They say there is a reason, They say time will heal;
Neither time nor reason, Will change the way I feel.
Gone are the days we used to share, But in my heart you are always there.

The gates of memories will never close, I miss you more than anybody knows...

Love and miss you everyday, Till we meet again
Always & Forever

Reflection of Life

Jennifer Turner was born to Celester Mae Brown and Ellis Turner, Sr. on June 23, 1955, in Greenwood Mississippi. She was the fifth oldest of eight children. After moving to St. Louis, she began her education with the Saint Louis Public Schools, later graduating from Beaumont High school, home of the Blue Jackets.

At an early age Jennifer accepted Christ as personal Lord and Savior. The biggest highlight of Jennifer's life was being the mother of her three wonderful children. Jennifer was vibrant and full of enthusiasm. She had a passion for cooking, dining, thrift shopping at Goodwill, and frequently visiting Soulard Market, where she was a regular patron. She deeply loved and cherished all her family members.

Jennifer established connections with her extended family at "Jake's Copacabana," where she dedicated 25 years of service to the community. During her tenure at Jake's, she earned the affectionate nickname "Fat Baby." Jennifer was highly regarded by everyone who had the pleasure of meeting her. She celebrated her birthday every year with grand celebrations, attracting people from various places to honor "Fat Baby." She enjoyed dancing and listening to Bobby "Blue" Bland. Jennifer possessed an exceedingly generous heart. She always went out of her way to assist others, regardless of how big or small the need. Despite facing health challenges, she remained unchanged, continuing to be the same remarkable Jennifer "Fat Baby" Turner.

On Tuesday February 11, 2025, Jennifer gained her heavenly wings surrounded by family.

Her father Ellis Turner, Sr., her mother Celester Mae Brown-Turner, her brother Ellis Jr., and her grandparents all preceded her in death. Jennifer leaves to cherish her memories: three children - Benita (Anthony Bankston), Barry (Rene Turner) and Vincent (Jennifer Hurns-Turner); four sisters - Mary Louise Latimore (James Texas), Joann Duckworth, Elizabeth Johnson (Larry), Deborah Turner-Lee; two brothers - Micheal and Rickey Turner; twelve grandchildren - Tammy Bell, Tammara Bell, Ronald Clemons, Donald Clemons, Derrick Adams, Syrroosevelt Davis, Jordan Brown, Nashay, Uniqua, Kiara, Shaniqua, Koenesha; and a host of great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
