LIFE'S REFLECTIONS

Elnora Thomas Williams was born March 26, 1928 to the late William Thomas and L.V. Matthews. She was called from this life on Tuesday, January 9, 2024.

She accepted Christ at an early age and joined Morning Star Church in Eden, Mississippi. She was a faithful member serving in the church until her passing. With her love of singing, she traveled from all over letting her voice ring. She also served faithfully as a Mother of the church.

Elnora was married to the late Charles Williams. She was a loving mother to twelve children. She had the same love for her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. She had so many grandchildren, it was too many to put on paper. Her family loved her dearly.

She retired from the city of Yazoo City after working for twenty years. While she served as a custodian, her job consisted of way more. She worked around many people from day-to-day, and they became her family. She had a very special coworker name Harold Granberry, whom she loved dearly.

Elnora was preceded in death by her parents, husband and three sons: Jimmy Lee Morris, John Wesley Williams and Levi Williams and three daughters: Pearlie Williams, Joann Williams and Ella Williams.

She leaved many memories to be cherished by her six sons: Jerry Williams, Leroy Williams, Floyd Williams, Herman Williams (Dorothy), Robert Williams and John Williams; daughter-in-law: Ivory Williams; and a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, other relatives and friends.

The Broken Chain

*We little knew that day, God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly, in death, we do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you. You did not go alone.
For part of us went with you, the day God called you home.
You left us beautiful memories, your love is still our guide,
Although we cannot see you, you are always at our side.
Our family chain is broken, and nothing seems the same,
But as God calls us one by one, the chain will link again.*
