

I AM FREE

Do not grieve for me, for now I am free,

I am following the path God had for me.

I took His hand when I heard His call,

I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,

To laugh, to love, to play.

Tasks left undone must stay that way.

I have found that peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void,

Then fill it with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,

Ah yes, these things, too, I will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,

I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life has been full: I savored much,

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,

Do not lengthen now with grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,

God wanted me now, He set me free.

"Until we meet Again..."

TO MY SISTER

She was a huge part of me. She was courage when I needed to be brave. She was wings when I needed to fly high. She was my cheerleader when I made an accomplishment.

"You say you've seen an angel?"

My friend asked me today without hesitation.

"Yes, I have seen one," I say.

He said, "What does she look like?"

Is there a halo and some wings?" "No", I replied quickly. "She doesn't have those things." She does have the warmest smile and greatest hugs, and is loving like no other. I remember. I ought to know. For this Angel is my sister Sherrie Lynn.

Love you, Diane

My little sister Sherrie was a visionary, always planning ahead preparing creations even if it was a Sandcastle in the middle of one of my games. Strong minded with a beautiful smile, never wore braces, with her shiny red hair. She would trail behind me everywhere. Her friends would come running up to me and ask "are you Sherrie's big brother?" She's over there telling some bigger kids they better let her have her way!" Oh boy, my little sister...the stories over the years are too many, but you get the point...I loved my sister through thick and thin.

Another one of my favorite memories is when she would call needing me to sing her favorite song. "Sherrie baby can you come out tonight"....As I replay that song in my mind, I will forever see her beautiful smile, red hair and her fiery spirit. Thank you Sherrie for the everlasting memories.

*Love you forever more,
your big brother Raymond*
