Reflections of Life

Lester “Skip” Lydell Johnson Jr. was born on July 4, 1989, in Tulsa, Oklahoma, to Lester Johnson Sr. and Glenda Johnson and was called home on September 30, 2026. Skip was the third of five children and the only male among his siblings. His parents, Lester Sr. and Glenda, were an important part of his life, both of whom preceded him in death. Their loss profoundly affected Skip's journey in life. Further, growing up in a house full of sisters helped shape Skip’s lively personality, quick wit, competitive nature and deep appreciation for family.

Athletics was important to Skip and the Johnson household. The Johnson household was full of athletes, four of the five Johnson children, including “Skip”, played basketball at the collegiate level. His father was a beloved coach who shared Skip’s love of basketball and founded the Tulsa Titans, an AAU basketball team where Skip was a member of the team’s inaugural class. Skip showed an early talent for sports and a strong ability to learn. He graduated from Nathan Hale High School, in 2008 with a 3.8 grade-point average. He continued pursuing basketball at Southern University, Carl Albert State College, and Rogers State University. He also played AAU basketball, building lasting memories and friendships through the game he loved.

Known affectionately as Skip, he had a wonderful sense of humor and loved cracking jokes. He could make people smile and bring energy to any gathering. He was also a technology whiz who, from an early age, enjoyed taking electronic consoles apart and putting them back together. Skip worked for various companies such as Pepsi, Borden, and Bama Pie. He continued his education at Tulsa Welding School and got a trade in HVAC and refrigeration. Skip was most happy when surrounded by his children and other children. His affection for them reflected the caring, playful, and generous spirit his family and friends will always remember.

Lester “Skip” Lydell Johnson Jr. will be deeply missed by his siblings, children, extended family, and many friends. His laughter, love, and presence will remain in the hearts of all who knew him.

Skip leaves to join those who preceded him in death, his parents; Lester Johnson Sr. and Glenda Johnson, (Tulsa); his grandparents; George Johnson and Gertrude Johnson, (Philadelphia); John Carson Jr. and Walterine Johnson, (Vicksburg); his aunt; Senobia Bunch, (Vicksburg).
