OBITUARY

Lloyd was born on October 21, 1946, in Cameron, Texas, alongside his brothers Floyd, Paul, and Ray, to Jessie Lee Jones. Jessie Lee raised Lloyd and his brothers in Conroe, Texas. Lloyd received his education and went on to earn his high school diploma. He graduated from Booker T. Washington High School on May 26, 1967. Shortly after graduation, he was drafted into the United States Army, where he proudly served two tours during the Vietnam War.

After completing his military service, Lloyd began a new chapter of his life in Dallas, Texas, where he met and married Lonzetta. Together, they built a family and welcomed their son, Kevin. Lloyd went on to work for Dallas ISD, where he remained a dedicated employee until his retirement.

Lloyd peacefully passed away with his family by his side. He is now reunited in Heaven with his mother, Jessie Lee, and his beloved wife, Lonzetta, who welcomed him home.

He leaves behind to cherish his memory his son, Kevin, and daughter-in-law Karie, his brothers, Paul, Ray, and Floyd, his sisters-in-law Ruby and Paula, and her husband Gerald Sr., his granddaughter, Kalista, and his grandsons, Kerrie, Kevin Jr., and Ke'Andre. He also leaves behind a host of special nieces and nephews.

Lloyd was full of love, joy, and laughter. He touched many hearts throughout his life and will be deeply missed. His spirit and legacy will continue to inspire all who knew and loved him. "Well done, thy good and faithful servant." May he rest in peace.
