

Psalm 23

1 The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.

*2 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
he leadeth me beside the still waters.*

3 He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

*5 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.*

6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

Janet “LaRue” Cromer

Janet “LaRue” Cromer, 77, of Sedalia, MO, passed away at home on Monday, June 2, 2025. She was born on November 12, 1947, in Kirksville, MO, the daughter of Evan Drew Sampson and Mary Jane (Magers) Sampson, who preceded her in death.

On May 15, 2004, in Lake Tahoe, NV, at the Ponderosa Ranch, she was united in marriage to Claudie “Junior” Cromer, who resides in the home.

LaRue was a proud graduate of Elmer High School in Elmer, Missouri, class of 1965. She furthered her education by attending the School of the Ozarks, where she earned a degree in education. Later, she graduated Magna Cum Laude from Central Missouri State University with a Master's Degree in Education. LaRue taught elementary school for 30 years and retired in July 2000.

An avid bird lover, LaRue had a particular fondness for hummingbirds and was a member of the Audubon Society. She could share extensive information about any bird if asked. In addition to her passion for birds, LaRue enjoyed sewing and crafting. She cherished spending time with her grandchildren and was a devoted wife to her husband, Junior.

In addition to her husband, LaRue is survived by her bonus daughter, Kris Young (Jerry) of Sedalia; a bonus son, Travis Levi Cromer (Melissa) of Lebanon, MO; a brother, Paul Sampson (Jan) of Elmer, MO; two sisters, Marsha Nuhn of Kansas City, MO, Karsa Shipp (Steve) of LaPlata, MO; seven grandchildren, nine great-grandchildren; and many nieces and nephews.

In addition to her parents, LaRue was preceded in death by a bonus son, Cameron Wayne Cromer, and a bonus daughter, Linda Bradley.
