

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures,
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul.
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil; for thou art with me;
Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies;
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life;
And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

Obituary

The late Mr. Keith Allen Martin was born on February 2, 1961, at St. Mary's Hospital in Grand Rapids, Michigan to his loving parents, Mr. Robert D. Marin and Mrs. Helen J. McMahan. Keith departed this life on December 20, 2024.

He was educated in Cincinnati Public School System.

Keith had met Sonya, the exchanged wedding vows on July 14, 1990. Years later, they divorced in 2000, no children were born through this union.

He enjoyed going fishing with his sister (Terri) and the one the one Keith always called his brother-in-law (Barry). Even though Terri and Barry were never married. That's how much he cared about Barry.

Keith was preceded in death by his parent: Robert D. and Helen J. Martin, grandparents: Maugarite and Walther McMahan; and nephew Troy Martin.

Keith leaves to cherish his memory two brothers: Stacy and Robert, and sister: Terri, Aunts: Ellen Allen and Anitha Gresham, Cousins: Gregory, Quincy, Anthony, Eugene, Diane and Willet Gresham; brother-in-law: Barry Hollis; 4 nieces and 6 nephews and a host of other family and friends. Keith will be greatly missed!

We will always love you! R.I.P.

A True Fisherman knows when and where the fish are biting.
He rises up early in the morning, plying the water for that elusive catch,
waiting in the stillness for a nibble
A slight twitch in the line, expertly he reels it in – A good fisherman knows a keeper when he sees one,
he knows when to toss one back,
and when to head for home.
