

Anthony T. Uliana

June 6, 1959 – September 7, 2025

Anthony “Tony” T. Uliana, 66, Casco, passed away on September 7, 2025, in Birchwood, Wisconsin. He was born on June 6, 1959, in Pennsylvania to the late Michael and June (Hennett) Uliana. He died doing what he loved, spending the weekend running hounds and hunting with his sons, daughter-in-law, and granddaughters.

Tony served honorably in the United States Navy. Following his military service, he became a welder at Kewaunee Fabrications. Tony was a devoted husband and father, with his life revolving around his family. In the last 3 ½ years he lived for being “Pop Pop” and watching his granddaughters grow. He enjoyed watching his kids wrestling starting at Pre-K and into college. In his younger days he played high school football and held many outstanding records for many years. He was inducted into the Bangor Area High School Hall of Fame. Tony was an avid hunter and loved spending time in nature. He loved his dogs, traveling with Jessie and riding his motorcycle. He was also a loyal Green Bay Packers fan and a Penn State Nittany Lions supporter, often known to get a little loud while cheering for his teams.

He is survived by his wife of 35 years, Jessie (Dally); his children Mike (Brooke) Uliana, and Brett Uliana; his granddaughters Ada and Stella; his half-brothers Allen (Renee) Bennett, and Todd (Debbie) Bennett; brother-in-law Glenn Stenlake; as well as many nieces and nephews.

He was preceded by his parents; brother Joe Uliana; and sister Jackie Stenlake.

A visitation will take place on Saturday, September 20, 2025, from 8:30 am – 11:00 am at Grace Lutheran Church, E5789 STH 42, Kewaunee. Funeral service will follow at 11:00 am with Pastor Mark Kinney officiating. Afterwards, friends and family are invited to The Rendezvous in Luxemburg for a meal in memory of Tony. Kinnard Funeral & Cremation Services is assisting the family. Online condolences can be shared at KinnardFCS.com.
