

Timothy's FINAL RIDE

For many years, along familiar roads, Timothy could be seen riding by,
pedaling along from place to place
beneath the open sky.

His bicycle carried him many miles,
to places both near and far.

But more than a way to get around,
riding brought joy to his heart.

We never knew the day would come when we would see him ride no more.

His journey ended suddenly,
and God called him to another shore.

Now when we see a bicycle traveling down a familiar way,
we'll think of Timothy and remember
the joy he found along the way.

Though his earthly ride is over,
his memory remains by our side.

Rest peacefully, Timothy—
you have finished your final ride.

A Life REMEMBERED

Timothy Frazier, Jr. was born on May 7, 1951, in Moncks Corner, South Carolina, a son of the late Timothy Frazier, Sr. and Bernice Gibbs Frazier. He received his education in Berkeley County and graduated from Berkeley Training High School.

Timothy was a familiar face in the Moncks Corner community and was well known for riding his bicycle. He enjoyed fishing, watching wrestling, and spending time with family and friends. Timothy loved visiting those he cared about and treasured the time they shared together. He was a member of Moncks Corner AME Church.

Timothy departed this life on Sunday, September 6, 2026, in Moncks Corner, South Carolina.

He leaves to cherish his memory his beloved caring sister, Deloris Rorie Harris; sisters, Betty Walker (David), Shelia Wilson (William), and Bernice Frazier; aunts, Jannie Mae Gibbs and Dorothy Frazier; good friend and cousin, Henry Frazier, Jr.; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other family members, and friends.

Timothy will be remembered for the things he enjoyed and the special memories he shared with others. His memory will live on in the hearts of all who knew and loved him.
