

The LORD is my Shepherd;
I shall not want.
He maketh me to
lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters,
He restoreth my
soul:

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death.

*I will fear no evil:
for Thou art with me;*
Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies
Thou anointest my head with oil; My cup runneth over Surely goodness & mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life;

And I will dwell in the house
of the LORD forever.

Obituary

In Loving Memory of Jacquelyn Bell Burns & Robert Burns

It is with deep sorrow and heavy hearts that we announce the passing of Jacquelyn Bell Burns and Robert Burns, beloved husband and wife who shared a lifetime of love, family, and memories.

Jacquelyn Bell Burns, born June 19, 1951, passed away on September 17, 2026.

Robert Burns, born December 8, 1949, passed away on September 27, 2026.

Jacquelyn and Robert were united in marriage on May 23, 1980, and together they built a life filled with love, laughter, family, and treasured memories in Cincinnati, Ohio. For more than 46 years, they shared life's joys and challenges side by side.

Robert and Jackie loved spending time with their family. They enjoyed traveling, listening to jazz and blues, and most of all, creating memories with the people they loved. Their home and their hearts were always connected to family, and their love will continue through the generations they helped build.

They leave to cherish their memory their beloved son, Asir Bell (Teneka); five grandchildren, Johnisha Mason, Dyaisha Armstrong, Brandon Bell, Briana Wofford, and Cathy Bell; sisters, Gwendolyn McGee (Kedrick) and Darlene Evans (Ralph); Deborah Burns; brothers, Willie Bell (Gina) and Richard Burns; and 18 great-grandchildren.

They also leave behind an uncle, James Porter Sr., along with a host of nieces, nephews, extended family members, and dear friends who were blessed to know and love them.

Jacquelyn and Robert's love story was one of family, companionship, and togetherness. Though they have left this earthly life, the love they shared and the memories they created will remain in the hearts of their family and friends forever.

Their legacy lives on through their son, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, family, and all those whose lives they touched.

Rest peacefully, Jackie and Robert.

Your love brought a family together, and your memories will keep that family together forever.

Forever loved.

Forever remembered.

Forever missed.
