A LIFE WELL LIVED

Though Joseph's journey here is done,
His love and legacy carry on.

In quiet strength, he led the way,
A beacon bright, both night and day.
His kindness touched all those he knew,
With loyalty so strong and true.

Though we may part, we will not grieve,
For in our hearts, he will never leave.

His spirit lives in all we do,
In every smile, in every view.
Though his path has come to end,
His love remains, our constant friend.
