

I Made It Home

I just wanted to let you know that I made it home.

*Everything is so pretty here, so white,
so fresh, so new. I wish that you could close your eyes so you could see it too.*

*Please try not to be sad for me.
Try to understand. God is taking care of me....I'm in the shelter of His hand.*

Here, there is no sadness and no sorrow and no pain. Here, there is no crying, and I'll never hurt again.

Here, it is so peaceful, when all the angels sing. I really have to go for now...I've just got to try my wings.

PS...I'll be the first face you see when you get here!

A Celebration of Life

Bradley V. Holm

Memories

Bradley Vaughn Holm, 69, peacefully passed away on Monday, August 4, 2025, surrounded by family at his home in Gypsum, Kansas.

Brad was born March 2, 1956, in McPherson, KS, the son of Arlie Benton and Norma Jean (Patrick) Holm. He attended Canton High School. He was a welder at both, Wear Technology and Mid West Industries, both of McPherson.

On April 21, 1977, he was united in marriage to Vicki Lynn Alvord, and they were married for 25 years and blessed with four children, Jason, Josh, Jessi, and Jenni. Brad later married Amy Jean VanDolah on October 13, 2018.

Brad was a man of honor and one with a big, soft heart. He loved his children and grandchildren and was always proud of whatever they had going on in life. When he married Amy, he accepted his bonus children without hesitation, especially taking on Isaac. Always a busy man, he was a very hard worker. He loved his job as a welder—one of the best in the trade. He had his wife to thank for finally owning a Harley Road King. He was very proud of that bike. He enjoyed watching ball games on television, whether it be college games or his favorite teams, the Chiefs and Royals. Little did his children know that he loved to sit alongside Amy and watch soap operas. On weekends, he could be found camping or working on a project. He just loved being outside. There are no words for the love Brad had for his brothers, sisters, and their families. He was a true fighter, battling by how he lived, why he lived, and the manner in which he lived, never ever giving up. Brad was a strong man who will be missed dearly.

Survivors include his wife, Amy Holm of the home; four children, Jason Holm of Canton, KS, Josh Holm of Canton, KS, Jessi Koehn (Luke) of Canton, KS, and Jenni Guyer (Nathan) of Moundridge, KS; six step-children, Jared Throckmorton of McPherson, KS, Kari DePaz of McPherson, KS, Al Louthan of McPherson, KS, Isaac Molina of Gypsum, KS, Cassie Molina (Donnie) of Tampa, FL, and Alexandra Caldwell (DeQuincey) of Tampa, FL; five siblings, RLou Wilson of Galva, KS, Beverly Johnson (Tom) of Galva, KS, Robert Holm (Cathy) of Galva, KS, Ronald Holm (Carol) of Galva, KS, and Bryan Holm of McPherson, KS; brothers-in-law, David VanDolah of Jet, OK and Dwight VanDolah of Houston, TX; sister-in-law, Joy Bellamy (John) of Jet, OK; 12 grandchildren, Landon Stephan, Brooke Stephan, Abigail Guyer, Madalyn Holm, Hali Rivir Koehn, Gus Koehn, Jack Koehn, Mikieala Aitmousa, Eryka Aitmousa, Zariah Watkins, Junior Caldwell, and Damien Caldwell; and many extended relatives and friends.
