

In Loving Memory

On this day, we celebrate the life of a man who gave us Love, Laughter, and Lessons that will last forever. May we honor him by living with the same strength and heart he showed us every day. Quincy will forever be loved and in our hearts.

Love is what God calls religion, love is holy, true and kind, Love is best of all God's graces, Its power of the perfect will sublime.

Love is an angel, perfect full of hope, Tis the busy bee of energy on time, Its the day spring of unity of true hearts, Tis the sacred spirit of every perfect mind.

Its the life bridge that crosses Ill-Will river, Tis the high tower that reaches above despair, Its the gate of which we enter glory, Tis the answer to my loving Saviors Prayer.

Lastly we would like to thank everyone for their kind thoughts, prayers and love, May God bless each one.

Cherone was a member of the True Light Army Church and enjoyed visiting St James Baptist Church in Columbus, Ohio. Cherone was a visionary trailblazer and a great entrepreneur who took great pride in his work. Cherone owned his businesses, including a lawn care service, a mentoring business, Hood Inc. He enjoyed sports and was an avid University of Michigan fan (Go Blue!).

Cherone also enjoyed attending church and appreciated music and dancing. Cherone faced significant struggles, but he displayed perseverance in the face of adversity. People knew Cherone as Quincy and Q Money, but in the Kingdom of God, he was known as the spirit of Mercy. Cherone was strong and proud and had a great passion for life.

He is survived by his mother, Sherry (Robert) Walker. Four Children: Christopher (Charonda) Hewlett of Columbus, Ohio, Cherelle Hood of Lancaster, Ohio, Cherise Hood of Dayton, Ohio, and Cherone Monet Hood of Columbus, Ohio. Two sisters, Monique Hood of Columbus, Ohio, and Lacresha (Greg) Hollien of Detroit, Michigan. Three brothers: Jeremiah (Melissa) Walker, of Stockbridge, Georgia; Joshua (Faith) Walker, of Alexandria, Virginia; and Robert (Cara) Walker, of Columbus, Ohio. He was preceded in death by his father, James Arthur Hood.

23 Psalms

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.
