

The Day God Took You Home

A million times I needed you, a million times I cried. If love alone could have saved you, you never would have died. In life I loved you dearly, in death I love you still. In my heart you hold a place that no one else could ever fill. It broke my heart to lose you but you didn't go alone. Part of me went with you the day God took you home.

Poem

The moment that you left me my world was split in two, one side filled with memories the other left with you.

I lay awake at night when everyone asleep, and taken a walk down memory lane as tears reach my cheeks.

Remembering you is easy, I can do that all day, but the heartache of losing you will never go away. I'll keep my memories close to my heart where they will remain.

Trying to go on without you will never be the same.

Obituary

Shaniece Renee Bradley, was born on December 9, 1980 in Cincinnati, Ohio to the parentage of Kevin B. Gordon and Angela (Orlando) Strickland.

Shaniece passed away on Friday, July 27, 2018 at the University of Cincinnati Hospital from complications related to Lupus.

She was preceded in death by her beloved daughter Ra`niyah Stubblefield in January 2007; beloved father in March 2018; her loving grandmother Gladys Bradley in November 2008, and loving grandfather Joe Cole in November 2013.

Shaniece graduated in 1999 from Mt. Healthy High School. During her high school years, she furthered her education at Diamond Oaks Career Technical School where she received her certificate in Early Childhood Education.

After graduating from both high school and vocational training, Shaniece held the position of Preschool Teacher for several years at KinderCare Learning Center. She later went on to work as a Credit Acquisition Agent for Citibank. In 2008 she worked as a Security Guard and Administrative Specialist for Securitas Security Services. She later returned back to her passion for children as a Preschool Teacher. Over the years she continued to teach and assist in the management of several early education programs and childcare facilities including her last location at Zykias I and II.

Shaniece was known as a humorous, friendly, affectionate person. She was very outgoing, loved people, and had a generous heart. Shaniece was a very blunt/straight-forward person who remembered everything, while at the same time showing too much curiosity about other people's affairs – nosey. She knew who to approach to get what she wanted.

Shaniece was a person who never gave up. A Warrior! A Fighter! A Trooper!

Her sense of humor and unselfish love will be missed by us all.

Shaniece leaves to cherish her memories, wife Donika Washington; beloved son Ricardo Bradley; mother Angela (Orlando) Strickland; grandparents John and Edna Gordon; sister Aundrea Bradley all of Cincinnati, Ohio; brother Sherard Bradley of Louisville, Kentucky; aunts Janet Stone of Cincinnati, Ohio, Faustine Bass of Unadilla, Georgia, Joann Cole of Cincinnati, Ohio, Tawana Cole, Paula Cole both of Miami, Florida, and Diane (Nick) Mendez of Covington, Georgia; uncles Richard Bradley (Joe Manuel Parra Martinez) of New York, New York, Eric Gordon and Garry (Shonda) Gordon both of Cincinnati, Ohio, and Damien Cole of Miami, FL; mother-in-law Dianna (Roger) Jones, father-in-law Donald Washington Sr., sisters-in-law Beverly Turner and Kesha Washington, and brother-in-law Donald Washington Jr. all of Cincinnati, Ohio.

She also leaves to cherish her memories aunt Darlene Stone whom she looked to as her second mother; her favorite cousin Timothy Stone whom she looked to as her big brother; a close and dear friend Dion Watson; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

2 Corinthians 12:8-10

“For this thing I besought the Lord thrice, that it might depart from me. And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee; for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me. Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christ’s sake; for when I am weak, then am I strong.”
