JANICE DARLENE WILLIAMS was born September 8, 1949 and her life brought love and joy to everyone who had an opportunity to be grace with her presence. She truly was a gift of love from GOD. Her legacy of love began with the union of her parents the late James Henry Williams and Cornelia Williams. She was the middle born child to four other siblings, having two older sisters and two younger brothers. One of her older sisters was born exactly one year before she was making them sisters and birth date twins.

Janice was born and raised in Detroit, Michigan and received her education in the Detroit Public Schools System. She graduated from Mumford High School (on Wyoming Avenue on Detroit's west side) in 1967. After completing high school she pursued a degree in Early Childhood Education for children with special needs but wasn't able to complete as she became a devoted mother to her firstborn daughter Chaundra. However, she was able to foster her love for being an educator by not only being a wonderful teacher to her firstborn but also to the two children she later gave birth to Anita and Julius. She educated her children culturally, artistically, and scientifically even before entered grade school. She was her children's first teacher.

Janice always strived for excellence in every task she took on whether it was cooking, cleaning, sewing, writing poetry, art projects, or showing love and care to her family and friends. She was fun loving and would give her last to anyone in need if it would help them not to suffer or go without. Some of her favorite things that she enjoyed were spending time with her family and friends, listening to music, artistic works; including writing and drawing, drinking cola, and eating potato chips, smoking cigarettes, and having an occasional cocktail. She was the life of the party and could light up any atmosphere with the love and joy that exuded from her persona.

The conclusion of Janice's life story but the most important part of it is that she loved the Lord and was a believer of JESUS CHRIST and accepted HIM as her LORD and Savior early in her life. Because of her great love for GOD and aspirations to be an evangelist the enemy attacked her mind at a young age but it did not deter her from wanting and working for a deep relationship with the HEAVENLY FATHER. Throughout her life she had many struggles due to dealing with mental illness and fought hard to keep her sanity. Despite her struggles she would always pray, read her BIBLE, and do her best to be an active member in the BODY of CHRIST. She prayed daily for her family, friends, and the world. She served in the church as a young child up until she was an adult (as she momentarily strayed away from the church) at the historic New Bethel Missionary Baptist Church in Detroit on Linwood Avenue which is the Williams Family Home Church. Later she became a member of Kingdom International C.O.G.I.C in Dearborn on Chase Road where she loved to attend and was loved by many. Although she endured many challenges she truly exhibited the love of GOD and belonged to HIM.

Janice Darlene Williams departed this earthly plain on Thursday, March 19th, 2020 to rest and await the return of her LORD and Savior JESUS CHRIST to be raptured at the first trump. The depth of the love she had for her parents, aunts, uncles, cousins, siblings, children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and friends was felt and expressed by the billions of phone calls she would make throughout her life to check on everyone she loved. She leaves her memory to be cherished by two siblings Rosemary Lewis and William Douglass Williams (Kim); three children Chaundra Cornell Williams (Drew), Anita Janette King (Michael-Frank), Julius DeSan Williams (Joya); four blood grandchildren DaeLon Marcel Williams (ShaRhonda), Diyea Aju'ei Carter (Davion), Jamir Freeman, and Nirajay Cornelius Lewis; one blood great granddaughter Dayonna Leilani Carter; other grandchildren and great grandchildren acquired through marriage; one special uncle Robert Williams; her first love, her children's father, and friend Julius Arthur Welch (Shirley); her godchildren; a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, special friends, and many other people who loved her dearly.

TO MY SHAWTY,

I'm lost without you, there are not enough words to say, emotions to even give to take this pain away. You took a part of me when they said you went away. But you're free, you're me, I'm you so you'll always live through me. I LOVE THE GROUND YOU WALKED ON.

P.S. I'll kiss Juicy for you and tell her you loved her always.

Love,

You're Granddaughter Diyea

“YOU ME, I'M ME”

Four simple words that will always echo throughout my life
My NaNa always told me these four simple words every time she saw me
Never quite really got the meaning of it until I got older

You Me, I'm Me

You Me, meaning that you are a part of the bond we share that can't be easily broken

I'm me, meaning that I'm unique and the uniqueness that I possess is also embedded in you

This simple phrase my grandmother quite often spoke meant in every fiber of its essence what the word family meant

Dr. King once said that we are all enter related and this means we all apart of each other in some way

No matter how much we may argue, may drop the ball, or might not be able to even stand each other

We will always find a common ground or get back around to forgiveness because

You Me, I'm Me

Ever wonder how in black families how people don't talk for long periods of time and they never uttered a true apology

Then sometime down the line they just end up talking again

That's because, You Me, I'm Me

Though my NaNa might not be with me physically anymore, I know she will always be with me in essence and in memory

Because, You Me, I'm Me.
