As a member of IHM, William served as the Parish Manager and was proud to work on the cemetery committee.

Growing up in central Arkansas, Willie enjoyed spending his time outdoors and working with his hands. He especially cherished his time gardening, woodworking, fishing, and hunting; however, his greatest joys were found in his family, especially his wife Margaret, and his faith. William was preceded in death by his wife, Margaret; parents, Max and Agnes Piechocki; and siblings, Chester Piechocki, Philip Piechocki, and Dorothy Miller.

He is lovingly remembered by his children Michael (Meri) Piechocki of Sherwood, Debbie (Jeffrey) Hunter of Texas, Larry (Diana) Piechocki of Marche, Kathy (Scott) Hoelzeman of Conway, and Cheryl (Tommy) Niedzwiedz of Marche. He also leaves behind a treasured legacy in his grandchildren Michael (Mandy), Jon (Lisa), Andrea (Jason), Andrew, Christy (Tim), William, Samantha (Harrison), Aaron (Anna), Tori (Tyler), Joey, and Alex, as well as great-grandchildren Madeline, Annabeth, Noah, Whit, Elizabeth, Emelia, Evangeline, Paul, Valerie, Henry, James, and Daniel. Afterglow

I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one.

I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done.

I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways, of happy times and laughing times and bright and sunny days.

I'd like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun of happy memories that I leave when life is done.
