Her Story

Teresa Andrews found her greatest joy in being surrounded by family and loved ones. Family gatherings were where she truly came alive – whether she was playing softball with relatives or dancing to music that filled the room with laughter and rhythm. Her spirit was magnetic, her presence warm, and her ability to make everyone feel welcome was unmatched.

Teresa especially cherished the time she spent with her daughter, Kelly Andrews, and her friends. She proudly called herself “one of the girls,” always ready to dance, laugh, and celebrate life right alongside them. Her love for music, dancing, and good times reflected her zest for life and her deep appreciation for togetherness.

Her joy was matched only by the love she poured into those around her. Teresa had a rare gift for lighting up any room she entered. Her vibrant personality, infectious humor, and boundless energy created moments that will be cherished forever by all who knew her.

She was preceded in death by her beloved parents, Barbara and Wilson Andrews, whose legacy of strength and love she carried with her throughout her life.

Teresa leaves behind her loving daughter, Kelly Andrews; her son, Ali Andrews; her cherished granddaughter, Kaiyla Jackson; her beloved grandson, Conner Simmons; her brother, Derek Andrews; her sister, Pamela Brown; and her devoted best friend, Beverly Taylor. She also leaves behind a host of extended family and dear friends who will forever treasure her memory.

Teresa Andrews was deeply loved and will be profoundly missed. Her legacy lives on through the joy she shared, the laughter she inspired, and the unwavering devotion she showed to her family. May her memory bring comfort, strength, and peace to all who hold her close in their hearts.

RECESSIONAL

“Still With Me”

I wasn't ready to say goodbye,
Not today, not this way.
One moment you were here,
And the next, the world changed forever.

You weren't just my mother —
You were my safe place,
My voice of reason,
My strength when I felt weak,
My comfort when life felt heavy.

We shared more than words.
We shared laughter, looks,
And moments that didn't need explaining —
A bond so deep
It lived in everything we did.

You loved to celebrate life.
You loved a good party,
Music playing, people laughing,
Friends and family filling the room
With love and joy.

And I loved being the one
To create those moments for you —
Throwing your parties,
Making sure you were surrounded
By the people who adored you,
Just the way you deserved.

You danced with me and my friends,
Laughed with us,
Showed us how to live fully
And love freely.
Those days weren't just celebrations —
They were memories,
And now they are treasures.

You loved being surrounded by love,
And today, this room is full of it —
Because of who you were,
And how deeply you were loved.

Your absence hurts in ways
I don't yet have words for.
There are hugs I wish I had held longer,
Moments I would relive forever
If love alone could bring you back.

But even now, I feel you.
In the music.
In the laughter we'll carry forward.
In the strength you gave me
That I now must live out.

You may have been taken suddenly,
But you will never be gone.
You live in who I am,
In how I love,
In how I gather people together —
Just like you taught me.

I will miss you every day, Mom.
I will honor you in how I live.
And until we meet again,
I will carry your love with me
