

I Will

When you forget, I will remember for us both.
When you get lost, I will find you.
When you are sad, I will be sad with you.
When the fear comes, I will comfort you.
When you cry, I will dry your tears.
When you lash out at me, I will not be angry.
When you repeat, I will have patience.
When you forget my name, I will understand.
When you can no longer eat, I will feed you.
When your legs fail, I will carry you.
When you long for home, I will be your safe place.
When your journey is ending, I will be by your side.
I will love you for eternity.
I will...

Marilyn Joan Schaefer, was born on June 14, 1936, the only child to Emil and Kathryn (Miller) Schaefer, at the hospital in Morris, Minnesota. She was raised on the family farm near Hancock. Marilyn attended country school – ½ mile south of her home, which she walked to everyday with her friend, Doretta Toop, until the 8th grade. She continued her education at Hancock High School and made several long-lasting friendships there. Following her schooling, Marilyn worked at the Hancock Co-op Creamery for a time before starting at the Farm Service Agency. On January 7, 1973, Marilyn was united in marriage to Robert Nohl at her parents' home by Minister Paul Fehr. They made their home in rural Hancock. In April 1984, a baby boy was born in Ciudad Juarez, Mexico; making Marilyn a Mother, which was the joy of her heart. Corbin was brought to Minnesota in December of 1984 and the adoption was finalized in March of 1986.

Marilyn was a member of the Morris Evangelical Free Church in Morris. She accepted Jesus as her personal savior on November 13, 1988, Marilyn loved Jesus and was not afraid to tell everyone about it! She was baptized on November 13, 1988, at the Morris Evangelical Free Church by Pastor Mac Carlson. She enjoyed craftwork, reading, playing the piano, flower and vegetable gardening and attending sporting and school events. Marilyn loved her family and the time that they were able to spend together, especially wintering at their timeshare in Florida, and spending summer days at their home on Lake Mary. She enjoyed the lake, scenery, family time, and their neighbors.
